PROGRESS OF HIGH SCHOOL

Advanced Education in This City Is Second to None in Province.

The Prince Rupert High School was opened in September, 1912 in a small, one-roomed building on Second Avenue, with 12 pupils in attendance and J. C. Brady as sole teacher.

In 1913 the High School was removed to the City Hall pending the erection of the present Horden Street School.

By the end of 1915, seventy pupils had passed through the school. At the completion of the Horden Street School, the High School removed there. The numbers increasing, two more teachers were added to the staff, Miss M. McLenaghan, and later G. Carpenter. This year the High School took over the King Edward School with a staff of four teachers, J. C. Brady, principal; Miss J. Macdonald, Miss M. E. Mahaffy, and Miss D. Ryan, commercial teacher, the number of students on the roll, being approximately 100.

Many Win Honors.
In the nine years of its existence, 440 pupils have passed through the school, of the students of the High School, 37 entered the University, and representatives from the Prince Rupert High School are at present attending the B. C. University, Toronto University, McGill, Washington University, Stanford University and Berkeley University.

Seventeen have entered the teaching profession and are either attending Normal School, or engaged in teaching throughout the province. Seven chose the nursing profession, while the great majority entered the business world, and are meeting with great success there.

Compares Favorably.
The work of the local High School compares more than favorably with that of the best schools in the Province as the results of the recent University examinations amply testify. Altogether the people of Prince Rupert have good cause to feel proud of the school and the part it plays in making the city a centre of educational activity and progress. The uplifting influence created by large numbers of educated boys and girls, annually leaving the High Schools cannot be estimated, and is the greatest guarantee of the future progress and greatness of B. C.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER TERRACE PROSPECTS

L. H. Kenney Had Nephew on Board Canadian Importer Lifeboat.

L. H. Kenney, who left for Terrace this morning after meeting Mrs. Kenney who arrived on the boat, says that Terrace is making great progress in settling up the lands, in mining and in oil prospects. He looks to see a great town there in the near future.

Mr. Kenney's nephew, Ronald Newell of Victoria, is a cadet on the Canadian Importer and was on the lifeboat which was picked up near San Francisco. The lad was just seventeen years of age on the day he was picked up.

Have you tried the Club breakfast at the Good Eats? Six combinations to pick from and we defy the world to beat any one of them for price or quality. tf

SCHOOLS TO BE SECOND TO NONE

City Will Provide the Most Up to Date Education for the Children.

Nothing but the best is good enough for the people of Prince Rupert whether it be in the schools, or elsewhere. The aim of the present board of school trustees is to give every opportunity to Prince Rupert children to secure an education second to none. With that end in view they recently engaged a new principal for the public schools who has been trained in the latest methods and who is going into his new work with much enthusiasm. H. L. Campbell takes charge with a fine equipment of schools and appliances and he is expected to make good.

Principal's Plans
Speaking of his plans Mr. Campbell told a Daily News representative yesterday that the modern idea was to treat the pupils as individuals rather than as classes, and to conduct the school work on modern business lines. Each pupil entered in a ledger with complete information in regard to him and track was kept of his work from year to year so that if there should be any falling back the remedy might be applied at once. There was a tendency among all people to follow the lines of least resistance, and this was as true in school work as elsewhere. The idea today was to see that every pupil got a good education, and especially a thorough groundwork in the lower grades.

Twenty Classes.
In Prince Rupert there will be twenty classes within a few days, ten at Hays Cove Circle, seven at Horden Street, two at Seal Cove and one at Westview. There will be twenty-three teachers, a manual training instructor, a domestic science teacher, and the supervising principal.

The new twenty room school gives plenty of room for the classes but there are already 16 rooms of the 20 in use. In addition to the public schools there is Catholic School taught by the Sisters of St. Joseph, which does excellent work.

SMITHERS

Incorporation of Smithers as a city is again being agitated strongly. The advisability of the move is to be impressed upon the provincial government.

Today a program of field sports is taking place here in aid of the fire department.

Twenty new pupils started school here this week and it may become necessary to engage a fourth teacher on the staff.

R. Blanchard, representing the Laut Exploration Co., of San Francisco, is in the district investigating mining prospects.

John Henry, of Smithers, arrived here on Tuesday to pay a visit to his nephew, William S. Henry.

Miss Muriel Adams and Miss Marjorie Warner are attending the St. Joseph's Academy in Prince Rupert.

The new school being erected here by E. H. Shockley, of Prince Rupert, will be ready for occupation on September 20.
