RACING OPENS ENGLAND MAR. 14

Earna is Favorite Mare for Lincoln Meet Next Week

LONDON, Mar. 9.—Easter falls early this year and as a consequence the flat racing season opens at an unusually early date on Monday, March 14. Notwithstanding the heavily increased cost of training and swelling expenses connected with the ownership of horses, the turf was never so prosperous as today. There were never so large a number of horses in training, nor have ever so high an average of prices been paid for the thoroughbred whether for stud purposes or as a racing machine.

In proof of this reference need only be made to acceptances for spring handicaps, which constitute a number of records. Thus for the Lincolnshire Handicap, run on Wednesday, March 16, over the famous Carlisle course, original entries numbered 77 and of these 23 paid forfeit after the handicap was published, leaving a possible field of 54. The Grand National, the blue ribbon of steeple-chasing, which is run over the Tremulous Andros course at Liverpool on Friday, March 18, furnished a record entry of 92, of whom only 19 declared forfeit after the weights were announced, which is a considerable tribute to the work of the handicapper.

Straight Mile

The Lincolnshire, which is run over the straight mile, owes its prominence to the fact that it is the first of the spring handicaps, and cannot otherwise compare in importance with such races as the City and Suburban, run at Epsom on April 12, or the Jubilee run at Kempton Park on May 7 next. Except for the war years, 1916-18, the Lincolnshire has been run continuously since 1853, and though it does not now often attract the highest class of dan-

Faint and Dizzy Spells Weakness and Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women become run-down and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much.

dicap horse, largely because it is run so early in the season when training is a hard ordeal, its winners contain names of several equestrian giants, including in 1885 that of the famous Bendigo. The announcement of the acceptances was followed promptly by the opening of a book, when Mr. Fraser's chestnut mare Earna, popularly regarded as one of the best handicapped horses in the race, was established favorite. Mares, however, seldom do well on the Carlisle, the last one to win the race being Little Eva in 1901. Among others backed to win were the top weight, Plotava, Scrans, Dynamo, Ugly Duckling, Valentine Vox, False Report, Cornsack and half a dozen more.

BOWSER DENOUNCES LIBERAL PROPAGANDA

VICTORIA, Mar. 8.—Urging the need of cohesion in the ranks of the Conservative party before the membership of the Conservative Club, Hon. W. J. Bowser denounced in scathing terms the Liberal propagandists who have seized upon the opportunity afforded by the Opposition leader's criticism of the Moderation Act to blacken him in the eyes of faint-hearted Conservatives with treacherous praise.

"They go about saying, 'Too bad a man should waste his talents like that. The cleverest man in the house, he could do so much, but chooses to obstruct.' They will say the same of Canon Hinchcliffe if he makes himself felt very often as he did in the House today. 'A man of the cloth,' will be the whisper, 'what a shame that he should mix in the dirty game of politics.' Write that man down as a hypocrite," exclaimed Mr. Bowser, urging his hearers to steel themselves against these Pussy-footing tactics.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF EUROPE RESTORED

The proposal also been taken up for discussion by the Federation of British Industries and by several Chambers of Commerce.

PRINCE GEORGE
