KENNY MUNRO, PIONEER, DIES

Mayor Rochester Receives Word of Death of Old Time Business Associate.

The death occurred yesterday morning in Vancouver of Kenneth Munro, one of the best known of Prince Rupert's early pioneers.

The late Mr. Munro was a native of North Sydney, Nova Scotia, and was about 52 years of age.

He came to Vancouver in 1890 and lived there for six years, coming to Prince Rupert in 1906 as manager for the Pacific Contracting & Stevedoring Co.

Mr. Munro kept a diary of the city ever since he arrived here, and this was a most interesting book which has been read and enjoyed by many.

BETTER RATES FOR ALASKAN HERRING

JUNEAU, Nov. 9.—A hearing has been started at Washington, D. C., before the Inter-state Commerce Commission, looking to the lowering of freight rates on sea foods.

The hearing was the outcome of investigations made with the idea of encouraging the Alaskan herring packing industry and securing of rates that will allow the Alaska herring to compete on a more even basis with those packed in Europe.

The total cost of transportation also includes a steamer charge of $8 per ton to Seattle; 60c a ton for unloading, 50c a ton for wharfage and 60c for loading on the cars.
