G. H. ARNOLD, Notary Public

FIRE INSURANCE is a hobby of ours. We take keen pleasure in making sure that all policies are so written that they cover your property exactly as you intend. If you entrust your fire insurance to careless, inexperienced or ignorant agents you may find, when you come to collect your fire loss, that your policies are so worded that the insurance company is not liable and so will not pay the loss. Why take chances?

CELTIC ROMANCE AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

"The Woman God Changed," by Donn Byrne, Excellent Subject for Screen.

The Celtic romance of Donn Byrne's literary temperament finds abundant room for gratification in his story, "The Woman God Changed" published in Hearst's Magazine, and picturized for Paramount by Cosmopolitan productions. It will be shown at the Westholme theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Byrne's genius for creating this type of story makes him peculiarly adapted to the screen. Born in New York he early found his way to Ireland the land of his fathers. He lived in its fairy stories, read its folklore, attended its schools, until at last he emerged a B.A. from University College, Dublin. Mr. Byrne is an athlete and lover of golf and yachting. He is a member of the International Sporting Club, New York; Woodway (Conn.) Golf Club; Riverside (Conn.) Yacht Club; is a contributor to sports magazines, and is considered an authority on boxing and wrestling.

TRAIL WON BILLIARD TOURNAMENT BY LONG LEAD OVER S. O. E.

The four remaining games in the Sons of England vs. Trail Club billiard tournament were played last night and the Trail, losing but one game of the six, won the series by the decisive margin of 1161 to 899. At that, the standing of the Trail in the season's games was reduced a point or so.

The results of last night's games were as follows:

J. Soudan (Trail), 161; Geo. Hill (S.O.E.), 200.

D. Brown, 200; E. Mansell, 88.

W. Barbour, 200; G. P. Tinker, 179.

W. Blythe, 200; H. F. Wearmouth, 189.

The standing to date in the Trail Club shield series is as follows:

ASIA TRADING CO.'S STOCKTAKING SALE

It is six months since our last sale. We do not hold sales often, but when we do, they are real sales. Our object is to clear out what we have left of our Christmas and New Year stock. It is therefore a good opportunity for our customers to take advantage of our necessity. We have to clear this stock. We intend to do so. We can assure you that it is not old stock. It is just as fresh, clean and select as our trade demands. We do not believe in allowing stock to get old on our shelves.

We suggest that you drop in to our store and look around.

ANGLICAN CHILDREN XMAS LAST NIGHT

Festive Season Celebrated With Supper, Tree and Concert.

The annual Christmas supper, tree and concert by and for the Sunday School children of St. Andrew's Anglican Church took place last evening and was attended by great fun and merriment. About 135 children were on hand, as well as several parents and grown-up friends. A. W. Healey, superintendent of the Sunday School, was in charge.

The evening's fun started off with the supper at 5 o'clock. This was presided over by the lady teachers and the repast was thoroughly enjoyed by the youngsters.

The program following consisted of recitations, songs and choruses. A feature number was the splendid chorus "Jingle Bells" by Miss Annie Dalby's class. The children of the Japanese Anglican Mission provided some excellent numbers.

After the concert Santa Claus arrived, much to the delight of the young people, and gifts, candy and fruit were distributed in plenty from the beautifully decorated tree.

SUSPECTED BOMB WAS THROWN AT TENEMENT HOUSE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The lives of twenty-one persons were endangered today in a tenement house fire which followed a mysterious explosion believed by the police to have been caused by a bomb. One suspect has been arrested.

THE CUB REPORTER

The cub reporter had turned in his story covering a political meeting, and the city editor was glancing through it. Suddenly unbelching a terrifying roar, he summoned the cub. "What do you mean," he shouted, "by this nonsense: 'Nine hundred and ninety-nine eyes were turned upon the speaker.'"

Pointing to one of the signs that hung over each reporter's desk the cub murmured: "There were five hundred people at the meeting, and one of them had only one eye." The sign read:

"Accuracy,
"Accuracy,
"Accuracy."
