VISITED MANY BIG CENTRES,
MET MANY PRINCE RUPERT
PEOPLE IN THEIR TRAVELS

it?" the man inquired. "Yes, you can get there over our line, I think." After twenty minutes' investigation he gave an approximate idea of the cost but could not quote an exact figure.

In the big Winnipeg office there was an immense wall map with a black line leading to Vancouver but the line was not connected with Prince Rupert. The man explained that it was an old map but Mrs. Self was curious to know if paint was expensive there and if it would cost much to connect up with Rupert. As a result a promise was made that by the time of the next visit the offending map would be corrected.

These were a few incidents to show how this city is neglected by the railroad, a neglect which Mr. Self found prevailing everywhere he went.

Cheap Water Haul.

In regard to express refrigerator cars, Mr. Self says there are plenty in California. Owing to the high express rates, the fruit companies have chartered some of the biggest steamers to carry their fruit through the Panama Canal to the Atlantic coast and as a result the railways are idle. The fruit companies save eight million dollars a year by using the water route.

Los Angeles the travellers found was the only city that was not suffering business depression. In that city business was better than during the war. The sum of $150,000,000 was spent there by tourists last year. Mr. Self is of opinion that there would be a good tourist trade in Prince Rupert if it was properly fostered.

Met Former Residents.

At Los Angeles Mr. Self stayed at the Hotel Cordova owned by Harvey Peck, formerly owner of what is now the Family Shoe Store in this city. He is doing well there. He also met V.D. Casley, formerly of the Empress Hotel in this city who is running a big apartment there. Mr. and Mrs. Self also renewed acquaintances with Mr. and Mrs. Chel-

Nell and as each of these former Prince Rupert residents had big cars, the visitors were taken to see everything and enjoyed their visit immensely.

In New York Mr. Self met James B. F. Melville, formerly chief clerk for the G. T. P. in this city under Superintendent Meighen. He holds a responsible position with an investment concern on the nineteenth floor at 75 Vanderville Ave. He is doing well but says he has a hankering to be back in old Rupert.

An effort was made to see Lieut. Frank Evans formerly of the Prince Rupert Fish Market. He is in business there and doing well. His war work has been mentioned often in the Daily News.

Many Places Visited.

Other places visited were Vancouver, Seattle, San Francisco, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Memphis, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Niagara and Canadian cities. The travellers took treatment at the hot springs at Los Angeles with good results and visited Mr. Self's father at Oklahoma. While away he was kept well informed of Prince Rupert through the Daily News which his father takes and which was forwarded to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Self were heartily welcomed on their return. They attended the E.K.s. dance last night and spent most of their time receiving congratulations and answering questions.

WHIST DRIVE

Rebekah Lodge had Pleasant
Affair in the Rand Block

The whist drive given by the Rebekahs' Lodge in the Rand Block last night proved quite a successful little affair. There were twelve tables of cards and the winners were Mrs. A. Caswell, Mrs. W. E. Brown, J. Garon and E. Hole. Delightful refreshments including ice cream, were provided and served by the gentlemen members of the Rebekah Lodge.

Several Italian workmen who were employed at the Dolly Varden mine last summer, reached the city on the Prince George last night.

Where's the Zam-Buk?

Is there a box of this famous herbal healer on the shelf ready for emergencies? It always pays to have Zam-Buk handy as it heads off skin trouble. Smear it at once over any cut, bruise, burn or sore, it soothes and heals like nothing else can. It is Canada's swiftest, cleanest and most perfect antiseptic skin healer.

HERE'S A SCALD—Mrs. A. B. Lloyd, of Ruby Creek, B.C., writes:—"I have found Zam-Buk fine in injuries, particularly for a bad scald I got recently. The prompt use of Zam-Buk took all pain and 'fire' out of the wound and left me fit to use my hand. More Zam-Buk healed the scald completely."

A CUT THUMB—Mrs. W. Campbell, Bonny River Station, N.B., writes:—"My husband, who is a railroad man, badly cut his thumb on the tin fastener of a box-car door. Though the wound was severe, dressings of Zam-Buk healed it in about a week's time."

OR A SPRAIN—Mr. Clarence D. Black, Legal Dept., Transcontinental Railway, Ottawa, writes:—"I have often used Zam-Buk and always with satisfactory results. The last occasion was when I fell from a street car and badly sprained my ankle. Zam-Buk speedily took out pain and inflammation and put me right in no time."

If you have not already tried this wonderful healer, send a 1c. stamp (for return postage of sample) to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box all dealers.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Saturday, April 9.

High, 1:50 a.m., 21.4 feet.
14:22 p.m., 20.1 feet.
Low, 8:11 a.m., 3.3 feet.
20:45 p.m., 5.5 feet.

Sunday, April 10.

High, 2:24 a.m., 21.6 feet.
14:59 p.m., 19.7 feet.
Low, 8:49 a.m., 3.1 feet.
20:51 p.m., 6 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes, on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

CITY SOLICITOR SAYS
HARD TO GET OWNERS
OF DISORDERLY HOUSESPolice Commission Could Hardly Prosecute Owners and Allow Women Go Free.

A letter from the city solicitor pointing out that owners of houses on Gono Avenue could not be prosecuted for allowing prostitution on their premises unless a second conviction was obtained against the same tenant and after the owner had been apprised of the first offence, was received and filed at the police commission meeting last night. Mr. Dooper stated that he would not care to prosecute unless this were followed out.

Commissioner Macdonald explained that he would prefer to prosecute the owner rather than the unfortunate woman but the solicitor pointed out that the commission would be placed in a rather bad position if it did not prosecute the woman when it was cognizant of the fact that she was a prostitute.
