SCHEME FOR HAPPY CONDITIONS NORTH AMERICA OFFERED

City Council Filed Letter from One, John Serrigan, State of Elysium

A letter was read at the council meeting on Monday night from John Serrigan seeking the co-operation of the city in a gigantic and complete scheme of linking the principal cities of the United States, Canada and Mexico together by a common railroad to be owned by the peoples of the countries mentioned with the object of furthering the interests both moral and material of the great mass of the population on the North American continent. If this were carried out successfully all troubles, including wars and strikes, would be a thing of the past and a state bordering on Elysium be reached. The letter was ordered filed.

BIG SHOW OFFERS AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Amateurs, Athon Stock Co. and Pictures Make Big Bill

There will be plenty of fun to-night at the Westholme Theatre, for, in addition to the regular show, there will be a big batch of local amateurs on hand to strive for histrionic honors. Money prizes will be given those who make the grade.

The Athon Company will put on the play that has made more people laugh than anything ever written, "Hello Bill." Poor Bill gets into some complicated mix-ups, but always slides gracefully out by a little judicious lying. While the play has to do with the Elks, one does not have to be a member of the lodge to understand it. Both Mr. Athon and Mr. McKinnon are Elks, so some real fun can be looked for.

The other offering by the Athon Company will be the play, "The Wages of Sin," a play that teaches a wonderful moral lesson. Mr. Athon and Miss Johnson will appear in their hilarious singing and talking vaudeville act, "Nifty Nonsense," introducing harmony singing, the latest jokes and stories. Seven reels of pictures will also be shown.
