HIS LAST QUART

"And if I marry you will you share your all with me?" she asked.

"Dearest," he cried, "I would share my last quart with you!"

"Darling," she exclaimed, "I am yours!"

"There's no more use in having goods that nobody knows about than in winking at a pretty girl in the dark."

SPORT

The contest for the championship of the billiard league and the possession of the Trail Club Cup has now narrowed down until it rests with the Trail Club and the Wanderers, the former being several points ahead in the standing. Despite the lead of the Trail, the Wanderers are not a bit discouraged and when the final between the clubs comes off next Monday night they are going to put up a big effort. The Trail Club is just as determined as the other that the shield is going to remain at home for its first year. Provided that Shockley defeats L. pine in the last of the Elks vs. Wanderers games it will be necessary for the Wanderers to pile up a lead of 72 over the opponents on Monday night if they are to win the championship. This is going to take all the playing the Wanderers have in them and they will have to extend themselves to a greater degree than they have shown so far in the entire competition. Monday's match gives promise of being as keenly contested as any one of the series.

This billiard series that has been going on for some months has proven very interesting and has brought out a lot of talent among local cueists. With the best of spirit existing between all the clubs in the competition the rivalry has been, nevertheless, very keen and both to the spectators and the players the games have been most enjoyable. With this winter's series proving so successful it is likely and desirable that there should be a similar contest each winter. The Trail Club shield has spaces on for the engraving of the winners for sixteen seasons and it is to be hoped that each following year will prove as interesting and well conducted as the first one has been.

G.W.V.A. WAR MEMORIAL

To the people of Prince Rupert—The returned men are going to build a Memorial of the greatest war in history and to those who fought and lost their lives for the great ideals of Freedom. The G.W.V.A. will shortly start a campaign to raise as much money as our citizens can spare and feel inclined to devote to this noble purpose. So be ready! Reserve a donation that will help to raise a Memorial that will honor the memory of those that fell, and be a lasting honor to Prince Rupert and her citizens.

THIS MAN WAS A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

"Are you a British-born subject?" demanded the official at the passport office.

"My mother was British—"

"began the applicant.

"Yes, yes."

"But she married a Frenchman"

"Yes."

"In Italy."

"I was born on a ship flying Spanish colors while she was lying at anchor in Honolulu Harbor, but my parents died in Brazil when I was only four years of age, and I was adopted by a Chinaman, who brought me up in Russia—"

"Well, he's—"

"He's a bloomin' League of Nations!" exploded the official who had first spoken.
