The Man in the Moon SAYS—

The person who expects little, usually gets less.

It is well to feel young and act young but not too childish.

Someone asks which is the best a blonde or a brunette? The reply to my young friend is that he is taking chances with either, but a person who is never willing to take a chance never gets anywhere.

Luke says that the sloppiest thing in the world is a girl who is trying to cry and chew gum at the same time.

A country wag says he hates to hear of Mrs. Ralph Smith entering the cabinet with John Oliver there.

Newspapermen are experiencing a boom just now. They are either dying or getting good jobs—mostly dying.

If a chapter of girl guides give a dance like the one last night, what might be expected from a whole book?

Opportunity knocks once at every man's door, but sometimes the inner hall is closed and it is quite impossible to hear the soft taps from the luxury of the drawing room.

Every man should have a chance, but there is nothing in nature that indicates every man should have surethings jammed into his pocket and fed him at every meal.

"On with the dance" is all right in its way, but it must not be forgotten that there is a morning after.

Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we work.

CLOSE BASKETBALL GAMES LAST NIGHT

Both Callies and Meteors Won Matches by Scoring in Nick of Time.

Although the Elks led at half time by 14 to 7, the Callies pulled up during the second and won last night's basketball game by a score of 20 to 19. The game was a well contested one with the Elks doing the scoring in the first and the Callies in the second. Just on the call of time Tommy Black got the winning score for the latter. Midway through the second half, Gunner Anderson, who had been playing a good game on his first appearance for the Elks, met with an accident and was forced to retire.

The scoring: Callies—W. Smith 2; Charlton, Black, 10; Graham, 8; E. Smith.

Elks—Ratchford, Mobley, 4; Anderson, 4; Craggs, 7; Halverson for Anderson; Menzie, 4.

Meteors Win.

The game between the Meteors and Maple Leafs, won by the former 7 to 5, was hard and evenly contested and the league leaders had to travel all the way. At the end of the first half the Leafs were leading 4 to 2 but in the second half the Meteors had the play in their favor and mainly through the efforts of little Marjorie Roberts were able to take the lead shortly before time. This is the second time the same player has meant victory for the Meteors.

The scoring follows: Meteors—M. Roberts, 2; A. Kelly, 2; H. Hibbard, H. Morrison, 4; and M. Lindsay, 2.

Maple Leafs—M. Harvey, 3; T. Dingwall, M. Graham, S. Calderone, 2; M. Carter.

Intermediate Boys.

The Beavers went down to defeat by a score of 29 to 9 at the hands of the Colts in the Intermediate League game. Poor shooting marred the good field work of the Beavers. The Colts played their usual consistent game.

The line-ups and scoring: Colts—Duncan, Martin, 4; Frizzell, 5; Roberts, 10; Mitchell, 10. Beavers—McDonald, Morrison, 2; Lambie, 4; Halverson, 3; Palmer.
