BOTH OUT FOR A CLEAN CITY

Two Police Commissioners Address Electors at Empress Theatre.

At the Empress Theatre meeting last night, R. T. J. Rose, candidate for the police commission, said he was under neither the banner of Mr. Rochester, or Mr. Nickerson.

S. D. Macdonald made a very emphatic statement as to his attitude when the first Duff case had been before the police commission a year ago.

Mr. Macdonald said he did not agree with Rev. T. H. Nuttall on the Comox Avenue question. It was not under his regime that Comox Avenue had been abolished and had spread all over the city.

H. S. WALLACE VISITS EUROPEAN CITIES

Says He Thinks There is No Justification for Panic Prices on Goods.

Word has been received from H. S. Wallace of the big store. He has been visiting in London and Edinburgh and has gone on to Paris and Brussels.

Nickerson's name is above reproach. His integrity and ability place him in a position to give you a good, sound, honest administration.

PECK SUPPORTS TWO VETERANS

Speaks Highly of His Comrades, Kelly and Silversides.

The following has been received from Colonel Peck: Editor Daily News.—Although as federal member I do not take part in municipal politics, I may be allowed to say a few words for the candidature for aldermen of two returned men, namely, that of Comrades J. H. Kelly and Tom Silversides.

My experience of these two men in the G.W.V.A. is that they were always broad-minded and patriotic and were keen in the public interest. I have always found in the G. W. V. A. a ready support during my term at Ottawa, and its members have done an excellent work here.

I think returned men should be represented in the governing bodies all over the country, and therefore have a great deal of pleasure in advocating the support of the above-named candidates, as well as for the memorial site bylaw.
