ENGLISH AS IT SOUNDS

Said Mrs. A, one of the over-hearers: "They must have been to the Zoo, because I heard her mention 'a trained deer.'"

Said Mrs. B: "No, no, they were talking about going away and she said to him, 'Find out about the train, dear.'"

Said Mrs. C: "I think you are both wrong. It seemed to me they were discussing music, for she said, 'a trained ear' very distinctly."

A few minutes later the lady herself appeared and they told her of their disagreement.

"Well," she laughed, "that's certainly funny. You are never guessers, all of you. The fact is, I'd been out to the country overnight, and I was asking my husband if it rained here last evening."—Boston Transcript.

An elderly man was persuaded by one of his sons to go with him to a boxing exhibition.

"The son paid for two 82 seats.
"Now, dad," said the son joyfully, "you'll see more excitement for your 82 than you've ever seen in your life before."

"I've got my doubts about that," he said gloomily. "Two dollars was all I paid for my marriage license."

Give Dad a Good Watch

Dad probably won't say much about Christmas wants, but do a little observing yourself. The chances are that he is toting around an ancient heavy timepiece that does not keep very good time.
Suppose mother and children "chip in" and give him a nice new one.
