

TERRACE is a thrifty, growing town. The chances are good that oil will be struck in the immediate vicinity, as seepages have been found, much ground has been staked and a drilling outfit is on its way there. We offer for sale eighty acres of land, 1 1/2 miles from the town on a good road at $12.50 per acre. This is your opportunity to participate in the enhanced real estate values that will surely follow the growth of Terrace.

HOUSTON

J. G. Neale arrived here last week and opened school on Tuesday morning for the first time this term. Mr. Neale is a returned soldier and has been farming at Quick. He has had considerable experience in English schools. Mrs. Neale arrived from Quick at the end of the week to join him.

Charles Deveny has commenced work of an approach and grounds at the station. When this is done, teams will be able to come up to the station from either side of the track.

H. Haney and O. E. Cartuthers have come here from the Peace River country to go on the land. They purchased the Latta Bros. ranch which they have divided. Both men have their families here.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Vancouver, were here recently and bought Rattenbury farm lands near the Silverstone ranch. They will come here themselves to settle, bringing two other families with them.

Last Wednesday evening, Rev. William Deans, of Telkwa, gave a magic lantern performance here. The pictures were: "One Thousand Miles Up the Nile," and "Jack and the Beanstalk." Local views, taken by Mr. Deans himself, were also shown. Mr. Deans held church services here on Sunday night.

Unborn tomorrows and dead yesterdays! Why forget about them. Today is everything. Advertise—now!

a card in a merchant's show-window reads "Don't go elsewhere to be cheated, buy here. Our advice is—Don't be cheated at all. Smoke the real cigar."

NO MEDICINE AT HOSPITALS

TZARITZIN, Russia, Nov. 15.—(Associated Press).—The lack of medicine in Russian hospitals becomes accentuated here. It is even worse than further down the Volga. Tzaritzin has five hospitals, none of which has a single grain of quinine or of any of the other simpler medicines, nor have they money with which to purchase nourishing food for their patients.

At the Second Soviet hospital for typhus patients, established here in a converted private residence, there are 50 patients with a lone woman doctor in charge, and with a few servant girls as nurses. She is totally without olive oil, camphor, alcohol, bed clothing or fresh garments. In the First Soviet hospital, at the outskirts of the city, there are 150 patients, but no medicines, no lye soap, no carbolic acid for washing the germ infested floors.

Food and Medicine.
The daily food of the convalescents consists of one dish of soup, one-sixth of a pound of meat and three-quarters of a pound of bread.

The Soviet government formerly supplied all medicines free to hospital patients and the general public but it ceased doing so some months ago.

Doctors and hospital attendants are thin and hungry despite the fact that Tzaritzin now is the best and cheapest food centre in the entire Volga district. Here the public market is fully stocked. But as in other Volga cities, at prices beyond the purse of most of its inhabitants.

The market has between the river and the railway station, at each of whom may be seen from 5,000 to 10,000 refugees in various conditions of under-feeding. They are living in cold mud. Many refugees are arriving from points as far east as Orenburg, where the crops are thin. They are striving to reach Tzaritzin and the Don district, but the trains are irregular, due to bad railway and to the "green army" bands, or non-Bolshevik peasants, who sometimes cut tracks and otherwise interrupt traffic.

Army Factory Idle.
Other than the small trading in foodstuffs there is no business in the Tzaritzin district nor is there any prospect of any. Its army factory is idle.

Members of the soldiers of the Red Army, themselves, are hungry. Their pay and rations have ceased since the Russian civil war in the south has ended.

PARNELL MAYOR.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 15.—Edward Parnell was returned aclamation as Mayor of Winnipeg at the civic nominations on Saturday last.
