

The Best Accident Insurance

—the one adopted generally in Canadian homes, is the policy of keeping Zam-Buk always handy. Zam-Buk ensures quick clean healing in cuts, burns, scalds, cold-sores, and all injuries and skin troubles. It promptly ends pain, irritation and inflammation; it purifies the tissues; prevents blood-poison and ulceration. Its ever-ready herbal character and powerful antiseptic properties make Zam-Buk the safest and best healer ever discovered.

Miss Belle Grant, Brazil Lake, N. S., says:—"Cold got into my burnt hand, and I began to fear blood-poison. I hadn't used Zam-Buk long before it took out all pain, soreness and inflammation."

Mr. Jonathan Beaton, of Delia, Alta., writes:—"With the threatening outfit last fall, many little accidents happened, cuts, bruises, frost bites, etc., for which we found nothing so good as Zam-Buk. There's nothing like it."

Chilblains, cold-sores, winter eczema, ulcers, pure abscesses, and skin sores, and injuries generally are safely treated with Zam-Buk. Of druggists and stores 50¢ a box; 3 for $1.50. A 10 stamp brings Free Trial Sample from Zam-Buk Co., Dupont Street, Toronto.

ANGELICAN SALE AT HOME MRS. McLENNAN

Affair Proved Pleasant and Profitable and Fifty Dollars Was Realized.

The ten and sale of home cooking held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. McLennan, 945 Borden Street, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church proved at once a pleasant and profitable affair. Many ladies called during the course of the afternoon and over $50 was realized for the funds of the church.

Mrs. Du Vernet poured and was assisted by Mrs. F. S. Clements, Mrs. H. Philpott, Mrs. G. A. McNicholl, Mrs. J. Barnsley, Mrs. H. E. Tremayne and Miss Alice Du Vernet. Mrs. Groves and Mrs. W. C. Orchard were in charge of the home cooking table. During the afternoon Mrs. Barnsley played delightfully on the piano.

STOLEN CHEQUE TURNS UP VANCOUVER STORE

Was Taken in the Kalamazoo Mail Robbery in December—Value $382.42

VANCOUVER, Jan. 5 (Canadian Press).—A cheque to the value of $382.42 drawn on a bank in Paw Paw, Michigan, and taken from a mail sack in the United States mail robbery at Kalamazoo early in December, was presented for payment on goods to the value of $495 in a large department store here on December 31. The discovery was made on January 3. The man who tendered the cheque represented himself as Floyd Packer, of Paw Paw.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THAT you can always tell a married man, but you can't tell him much.

THAT home is no place to use for a grouching place especially at this time of the year.

THAT everyone is happy now that shipbuilding and ship repairing are once more among the industries of Prince Rupert.

THAT while some men bought talking machines at Christmas, others got married.

THAT to prevent pants bagging at the knees, wear kilts.

THAT it is easy to understand how a married man might be driven to drink, but that is no reason why single men should defy the prohibition act.

THAT since Ulster is about to make the northern Irish parliament a workable one, it must be expected the southerners will be against it.

THAT the difference between a singer and a prize fighter is the prize fighter never responds to an encore, but the singer is always ready to come back and repeat the wretched performance.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 6, 1911.

At a meeting of the Prince Rupert Industrial Association held last evening it was resolved that the candidates in the municipal election declare themselves on the wage question. W. Fraser was chairman. Angus Melvor, secretary, and A. O. Morse, recording secretary.

A meeting was held last night in the skating rink in support of William Manson's candidature for mayor. F. M. Lennie was the chairman and among the speakers were William Manson, Ald. Barrow, E. H. Mortimer, H. Douglas, Dr. Clayton, G. C. Emmerson, D. H. Morrison, Ald. Pattullo, S. M. Newton, Ald. Naden, P. I. Palmer, J. S. Cowper and J. A. Kirkpatrick, who supported either mayoralty candidate. W. H. Montgomery attacked Ald. Hilditch charging him with breaking union rules.

The Ladies' Bridge Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. T. D. Pattullo. The winners for December were Mrs. S. B. Johnson and Mrs. J. C. McLennan.

A man named Donaldson fell off the grading at the junction of Second Avenue and Seventh Street last night and fractured his skull. After laying there all night he was picked up this morning and taken to the hospital. He will recover.

WAR VETERANS HAD REGULAR MEETING

Unemployment and the Oriental Question was taken up—Thanks Tendered.

Prominent amongst the subjects taken up at the G. W. V. A. meeting last night was the unemployment situation in the city and district. Satisfaction was expressed at the likelihood of early resumption of work at the shipyards.

The matter of Orientals being employed on railroad work of the C. N. R. between Prince Rupert and Jasper, when white men and British subjects were actually going hungry through lack of employment, was severely criticized. A delegation was appointed to wait on Col. Peck and remonstrate as to the government's responsibility in the matter. In conjunction with the Terrace branch it was decided to circulate a communication regarding Oriental labor on railroads, through the provincial command and thence to the Dominion command headquarters at Ottawa.

Court House.
In regard to the immediate starting of work on the provincial government court house the secretary was instructed to write Minister of Lands Pattullo for information.

Thanks were tendered to Comrade R. MacDonald, chairman of the Christmas Cheer fund, and the committee for the excellent work done in administering the fund. Also thanks were made to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Woodland for their kindness in taking care, on behalf of the association, of a family during the Christmas season.

ARE INVESTIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES OF LORD MAYOR'S CASE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—An investigation is being conducted into the circumstances of the entry into the United States of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork who arrived Tuesday night at Newport News as a stowaway without a passport. There will be no distinction in his case.
