ALLIES UNITED ON GERMAN REPARATIONS CLAIMS

IMMENSE QUANTITY OF HALIBUT MARKETED IN APRIL SPITE CAR SHORTAGE

Germany Given Ten Days to Answer Yes or No to Demands of Allies Over Reparations

PRINCE RUPERT, May 2.—Belgium's plan for reconciliation of Great Britain and France's reparations proposal has been accepted. The ultimatum goes to Germany with ten days' grace. France continues preparations for the occupation of the Ruhr district with advance on the tenth day if Germany fails to make good. Preparation for possible trouble, France is mobilizing an army class tomorrow.

Categorical Answer.

Under the plans as finally decided on, Germany must give a categorical answer, yes or no, to the Allies reparations demands for infliction of the military and naval penalties, according to terms of the ultimatum drafted by the Allied foreign ministers and submitted to the Supreme Council for approval. The interval of the ultimatum is not for the purpose of negotiations but to give the German Government time to reflect. Negotiations are to be considered at an end after receiving the report. The council of foreign ministers and the Supreme Council are agreed in principle on the plan of the ultimatum.

Naval Demonstration.

Britain will make a naval demonstration if Germany refuses to accept the allied conditions in the reparations issue. The demonstration will not take the form of a blockade. It will probably take place in the North Sea.

JACKIE "THE KID" AS HE IS AND AS YOU KNOW HIM.

John Henry Coogan, Jr., has made a triumphant trip from Los Angeles to New York and has enjoyed the trip immensely. John Henry Coogan, if you please, is none other than six-year-old "Jackie" Coogan, carrier of a weekly income of $1,300, known as the highest salaried kiddie in the world, and renowned throughout the country as Charlie Chaplin's co-actor for cinema fame.

"Jackie" is seen in one of the pictures with his pet dog Quennie, of which he thinks more than his salary. He is a regular boy and upon his arrival in New York city to see the premiere showing of his new film, "Peck's Bad Boy," he was greeted by a host of moving picture fans.

Little "Jackie" loves all the toys that six-year-old kiddies love, but he has one strange and overwhelming passion. It is for cards. Rummy, domino and old maid are among his favorites. Solitaire he will play by the hour. His opponents say that he plays with the skill of a grown-up. Only occasionally, however, does "Jackie" assume the grown-up air.

YUKON ASKING ROAD LEADING FORT NORMAN

Legislature of Territory Says It Is Shortest Route to the Oil Fields.

DAWSON, May 2.—The Yukon legislature unanimously adopted a resolution memorializing the Government to extend the Yukon trunk road and telegraphs to the Fort Norman oil fields in the Mackenzie valley.

The road by way of the Yukon is the shortest into that country, the memorial states, and only a .65 mile link is needed to give through connections to the coast at Skagway, where the liners ply to Prince Rupert and Vancouver.

SIX MILLION SILK SHIPMENT

Steamers Monteagle and Katori Maru Bring Valuable Cargo From Orient.

VANCOUVER, May 2.—The C. P. R. steamer Monteagle and the Japanese vessel Katori Maru docked here today, bringing from the Orient $9,000,000 worth of silk which is being rushed east over the C. P. R. to New York by special train. The Monteagle also brought a number of passengers, including several missionaries.

A lifeboat squad from the Monteagle rescued the crew of the French steamer Hsintien which was wrecked in the China Sea, according to information brought by the officers of the vessel. The members of the crew received testimonials of their bravery for the rescue in the teeth of a big storm. Only four seamen from the Hsintien were drowned but 49 were rescued.

STORAGE TEAMERS WILL OPERATE SOON

Fishermen's Strike Settled and Boats Being Out on Company Lay.

Canadian Fish and Gold Storage Co. has succeeded in settling its differences with the fisherman and the trawlers and operations are now being made by the three steamers to sea.

Steamers Andrew Kelly, Foster and James have been laid up for some time and the smaller boats have been sent out on the coast lay. When they go to the halibut banks will, however, be on the way as before. The dispute between the company and fishermen was settled by a compromise.

MISSIONARY OF NORTH PASSES

James Benjamin McCulloch, of Aiyansh, Died Here Yesterday Morning.

After a long illness at the General Hospital here, Rev. Jas. Benjamin McCulloch, the well known missionary of the Naas River, passed away yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, aged 68. He is survived by a widow and five children, Nancy, Jean, Patrick and Chris. Mrs. A. F. Priestly, of Aiyansh, is also a daughter.

Mr. McCulloch was a native of Ireland and came to this country in 1883, establishing at Aiyansh on the Upper Naas one of the earliest missions under the auspices of the Church Missionary Society of London, England, an organization of the Anglican Church.

LEARNED LANGUAGE

For the thirty-eight years of his abode in the north, Mr. McCulloch's labors were centered about the same village of Aiyansh. When he arrived in the province he found the natives in a heathen state. His first work was to learn the language and, rapidly accomplishing this, he started the work of teaching the natives in the paths of Christianity and civilization. His efforts were crowned with success for he established at Aiyansh a model Christian village and succeeded in converting all the natives of the Upper Naas. His work included the translation of several books into the native language. He was appointed a justice of the peace some years ago, but subsequently resigned.

DEEPLY REGRETTED

The demise of Mr. McCulloch will be deeply regretted, not only by his flock at Aiyansh, but by people of the north generally for everyone who became acquainted with him learned to respect and admire him. All will join in the sympathy for the mourning widow and her little children who are at present in the city. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers.

MICHELSON COMMITTED

Will Be Tried for Kidnapping—Robbery Case Remanded.

E. Michelson, of the Ketchikan boat Valorous, was committed for trial this morning by Magistrate McMordie on the charge of kidnapping Jack Miller and the charge of robbery with violence of 10 cases of liquor was remanded until tomorrow. There was considerable argument of counsel as to whether the accused could be sent up for trial without going over the evidence again which is said to be similar to that presented in the kidnapping case.

A. M. Manson, appearing for Miller, cited a Supreme Court case where this had been done and adjournment was made to allow the magistrate to consider the point.

Nearly Two Million Pounds Hal but was Marketed Here During the Month Just Past

The total amount of halibut landed at Prince Rupert last month was 1,819,000 pounds, and salmon 26,600 pounds. These figures compare favorably with last year's when for the same month there were 1,395,000 pounds of halibut and 18,999 pounds of salmon. The fish car shortage which has prevailed throughout the most of the month has put the fishing business at a disadvantage. On account of this condition 162,000 pounds of halibut actually left here for sale at other ports while many boats selling here had to do so at short cold storage prices.

The weather in the past month was fair but market conditions were not all that might have been expected. The demand at no time was very strong and the highest price was paid by the Atlin Fisheries on April 3 when 17c was bid. The lowest price for the month for first class fish was 9c. Last year as high as 19.2c was paid.

As a result of the Seymour having to leave port with 33,000 pounds of halibut, owing to car shortage, one firm in town lost an order for $700 worth of goods and the dock lost the cleaning of the boat's hull for $135. Other losses from the same cause it is difficult to compute, even for the one boat.
