

Everyday o' the Week

—any hour of the day—one of your household comes along with a nasty cut or bruise, a burn, scald or sore. It's then you realize how it pays to have Zam-Buk always handy. Just a touch and Zam-Buk takes out all fiery pain or smarting irritation. At the same time it purifies the tissues, prevents dangerous festering or ulceration, ensures speedy healing.

Zam-Buk's unrivalled antiseptic and healing virtues are derived from a unique blending of herbal oils and extracts. Animal fats and coarse drugs found in ordinary ointments and salves have no part in Zam-Buk. It's herbed throughout.

"For over ten years Zam-Buk has been our household remedy," writes Mrs. S. B. Folkins, Somerville, Mass.: "There has never been a healer made to take its place. We wouldn't be without Zam-Buk whatever it cost. It never fails in burns, scalds, cuts, chafing, and innumerable other skin troubles."

For healing cold sores, cracked hands, eczema, and children's Zam-Buk is invaluable. Also in ulcers, ringworms, abscesses, piles, poisoned wounds and obstinate wounds. Of druggists and stores at 25c. 3 boxes for $1.25. Free sample for 1c. stamp from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

BRINGING UP FATHER

ELECTION IS FOLLOWED BY LOVE FEAST

Happy Addresses Given at Theatre Following Counting of the Votes.

EVERYONE HAPPY AS RESULT OF VOTING

Returned Men Jubilant Over the Success of Candidates and Memorial Bylaw.

After the election results had been announced last evening and Harry Rochester's election as mayor had been assured there was a meeting held in the Westholme Theatre by the Rochester interests to celebrate the occasion. George H. Munro was the chairman and many of the successful as well as the defeated candidates were present and made short speeches.

Mayor McLymont was the first speaker and barely had he commenced when a troop of returned men headed by Captain Formby, exultant and cheering, entered the hall with their two successful candidates, J. H. Kelly, who headed the poll, and T. W. Silversides. As the mayor aptly remarked the meeting was much larger than when he had commenced.

Congratulates Both.

Mayor McLymont pointed out that this election had seen the heaviest poll cast since the early days. Both winner and loser in the mayoralty contest were to be congratulated. Mr. Nickerson had obtained the largest percentage of votes that a defeated candidate had ever obtained in a local municipal fight. He would have preferred to have seen Mr. Nickerson run for alderman and hoped that if he did not seek the mayoralty again next year he would at least be a candidate for alderman.

Winner and Loser.

Mayor-elect Rochester thanked the electors for the expression of confidence that had been shown. With brighter times in sight and an excellent council to assist them he was sure that they would make a showing in the coming year.

George Nickerson, the defeated mayoralty candidate, said he was sure, sorry and satisfied, sore because he wouldn't get the $1,500 that the bootleggers were going to pay him, sorry for his friends and satisfied with Harry Rochester as mayor. Of course he had wanted to win but he had made a good run and would assure Mayor-elect Rochester that as an active member of the Board of Trade he could assure him of that body's support in legislating for the good and progress of the city. The election was now over and all would work together to make Prince Rupert a good city.

For G. W. V. A.

J. H. Kelly said he felt that the electors had not voted altogether for himself and Tom Silversides, but had voted for the principles of the G. W. V. A. He had wondered sometimes but now he was very proud for Prince Rupert had stood behind the boys as she had said she would. He also was thankful for the passage of the memorial bylaw. All would get behind Mayor-elect Rochester.

or Rochester and fight for Prince Rupert against the world.

George Frizzell said he would fill the dinner pail with common sense and although he had made no promises he would help those who had to carry them out. He assured Mayor-elect Rochester of support.

George Kerr said that he had not fought but had just run. He thanked the boys of the Trades and Labor Council, especially, for their support. Although both he and George Frizzell were butchers they would not cut everything up. John Iybhavn briefly thanked the electorate for the renewed expression of confidence.

Rupert on Map.
T. W. Silversides said he felt the city was behind the returned soldiers and had shown it. He was especially pleased to see Jack Kelly head the poll. They would do their utmost in putting Prince Rupert on the map.

Douglas Sutherland said he was not taking the defeat to heart. He had started off to elect Rochester mayor and had perhaps sacrificed himself in his efforts but he was satisfied. If he was spared another twelve months he would run again.

Is Young Yet.
M. M. Stephens said his vote would not demand a recount and evidently the city did not think a recount was necessary. He congratulated the city on the choice of mayor and although he would not slam himself he felt there had been a good council elected. Under the able direction of Mayor-elect Rochester there would be a good safe governing body. He was young as yet and you might hear from him again another year.

D. McD. Hunter congratulated the citizens on their choice of mayor and aldermen. He felt quite jolly in facing defeat. He hoped that if he was ever called upon to enter the fight again he would do so prepared to face either victory or defeat.

Police Commission.
S. D. Macdonald, newly-elected police commissioner, was not only pleased but he was tickled to death for he had shown that he could come back with a handsome majority. He was happy to know that the men who had fought could support one who had not. He expressed his hearty good will to his opponents and especially to Tom Rose.

R. T. J. Rose was pleased and satisfied with the choice of Sid Macdonald as police commissioner. He emphasized this with a hearty handshake to the winner.

L. W. Patmore, school trustee, congratulated Harry Rochester on his election to the mayoralty. His disappointment at the defeat of George Nickerson was tempered in seeing the sportsmanlike manner in which he had accepted defeat. He thanked the electors for the return of Mrs. Ling and T. McLymont to serve with him. The former had obtained more votes than any other candidate in the election.

Last, Not Least.
M. J. McNeill said he was the last alderman on the successful list but he hoped he would not be the least. He would do his utmost to serve and thanked the citizens cordially.

With the singing of the National Anthem the gathering dismissed, the candidates then reporting to the Great War Veterans rooms where they were the guests of the veterans.

DRY DOCKS WIN.
