TWO YEARS FOR ISAAC BEDORE

Jury Brought in Verdict of Indecent Assault—Mentally Deficient.

The jury in the case of Rex vs. Isaac Bedore, of Rose Lake, charged with attempted rape and indecent assault upon a female, brought in a verdict of guilty of indecent assault last night with a recommendation for mercy and at noon today Mr. Justice MacDonald sentenced the accused to two years imprisonment at the New Westminster penitentiary.

The hearing of the case took place yesterday afternoon and at 6 o'clock the jury retired. They deliberated for over two hours and then returned with their decision.

The witnesses for the crown were Constable Andrew Fairbairn, of Telkwa, Mrs. C. H. Mould, of Rose Lake, the woman upon whom the assault was alleged to have been made, Mrs. James Mould, her mother-in-law, C. H. Mould, her husband, and Frank Mould, brother-in-law. The defence witnesses were the accused and his brother, Herbert Bedore. A Donaghy conducted the case for the crown and L. S. McMillan, of Smithers, appeared for the defence. The jury comprised: Charles Rhymer, (foreman), James Hampton, J. A. Edwards, H. A. Breen, Thomas Spence, John A. McInnes, John Day-Bell, A. P. McGorkindale, Murdoch McLean, B. H. Crossell, James Currie, and Howard Steen.

The evidence was of such a character that the case was heard in camera and the court was closed to all except those directly concerned in the case and its conduct.

Today before the judge passed sentence, Mr. McGill, defence counsel, addressed him stating that the brothers of the accused were prepared to act as bondsmen to ensure that the accused would never return to Rose Lake. He asked for mercy.

Poor Miserable Specimen.
Mr. Justice MacDonald in passing sentence, stated that he could not understand the state of mind of the accused when he had been in the box and, openly admitting committing the assault, had attempted to blacken the character of the woman in the case. Neither could he understand the jury in returning the lesser verdict and recommending leniency. On reflection he had decided that they must have done so because they believed that he (the prisoner) was mentally deficient.

"You may be of low mentality but you are strong in your desires. You are a poor miserable specimen and I sympathize with you under that condition."

"The time may soon come when an attempt will be made to release you. With that I have nothing to do. It is up to your brothers to deal with that."

"I sentence you to two years imprisonment at Westminster penitentiary."

WATERPROOF PAINT IS BEING PUT ON SCHOOL

Leaks Due to Tile Absorbing Incessant Rain and Sweating on Inside.

Waterproof paint is being applied to the brick of the Booth Memorial School to stop the incoming of water that has been complained of lately.

Asked regarding the matter this morning, Col. McMorris explained that there were no actual leaks in the building. An examination had been made and this was ascertained. He explained the incoming of the water as due to the incessant rains since the school was completed. The tile had become saturated and absorbing the rain had sweated on the inside. This was no fault of the construction and it was thought that the applying of the paint would remedy the matter.

UNEMPLOYED DO NOT FAVOR PLAN OF CITY

Meeting Last Night Protested Rate of 50c Being Paid for Relief Work.

At the second meeting of the unemployed held in the McIntyre Hall last evening, the plan for relief of unemployed on civic work proposed by the council was submitted and discussed. The meeting went on record as not being favorable to the rate of 50c being paid as it was cutting the city scale of 65c. The proposition of the city was to give three six-hour days a week work for single men and four days for married men. It was decided to call another meeting for Sunday night and invite the city employees to be present to discuss the matter.

The secretary was instructed by the meeting to write to various centres west of Winnipeg to ascertain how the unemployment situation was being handled.

Seventeen new names were added to the local unemployment list. Four of these were married men and there were 11 children dependent on them altogether. One man had a mother to support. The total list now stands at 123.

J. H. Burroughs was elected recording secretary.

There were 150 persons present at the meeting and W. Ormshaw presided.

JOSEPH GILKES WAS FINED FOR VAGRANCY AND ASSAULT WOMAN

Joseph Gilkes, colored, was fined $20 with the option of two months imprisonment for assault and $50 or six months for vagrancy in the police court this morning. The information was laid by Margaret Robinson, who claimed that her body was black and blue. She gave evidence in the police court. This is not Gilkes' first appearance in the police court. He was up once before on a charge of vagrancy when he was dismissed and on another occasion for assaulting the same woman, when he was fined.

There's one thing that's never out of place and that's a sunny, happy face.

You are no unhappier than you think you are.
