GISH COMEDY COMING Delightful Star in "Mary Ellen Comes to Town."

Can you imagine peppy Dorothy Gish suppressed for life in a sleepy Southern town that closes up shop every evening at 9 o'clock? In "Mary Ellen Comes to Town," which is shown tonight at the Westholme Theatre, the vivacious comedienne starts out as chauffeur at the local soda fountain and plays checkers with the "hicks" who congregate there.

Ralph Graves is leading man in the picture and Rhea Haines and Raymond Cannon are also in the cast. It was directed by Elmer Clifton.
