No Appetite
Nervous exhaustion leads to distaste for food. The nerves of the stomach are weak, digestion fails and you become generally upset and out of sorts.
The secret of complete restoration is in getting the nervous system fully built up.
Mrs. R. Cheney, 208 Richmond St., Chatham, Ont., writes:
"I was troubled with indigestion, which caused me many sleepless nights. I would be in terrible distress at times, and would get no relief for two or three hours. For sixteen months I ate nothing but Shredded Wheat biscuits, as I dare not eat anything else. I did not know what to do, as I had tried so many different remedies, as well as doctors' medicines, without gaining permanent relief. Finally I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and while on the second box noticed that I was improving. I continued the treatment until I am now fully restored, and have returned to my regular diet. My husband has also taken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results, so we are glad to recommend it to others."

PICTURE AT EMPRESS
Girl with Jazz Heart Is Feature Film to Be Run Today.
The Girl with the Jazz Heart at the Empress theatre tonight is a fine feature with Madge Kennedy in a double role. The contrast between these two characters provides a fund of unusual and delicious comedy. Off is a blonde, dressed in the latest twinkle of fashion, as full of energy as a stone jug of home-made brew, bubbling over with infectious humor, more than a little tough and a daisy-eyed fanatic at the tail of the Great God Jazz. The other is small and sweet of countenance, as quiet as a kitten, grey-framed, big-eyed at the nose and surprised at Broadway, frightened, timid—but longing with all her starved little soul for romance and the love that had been denied her. They engage in about as exciting an adventure as ever flashed on the screen.
Jazz, in all its glittering glory bursts upon the scene and scatters joy, excitement, drama, laughter and explosive action to all parts of the story. The cabaret scene, with Gilda Grey doing her inimitable shimmy, is the most colorful thing of its kind ever shot.
S. B. Peacock, of Cedarville, was brought to the city on last night's train by Provincial Constable Alex. Saint. This afternoon he appears before Stipendiary Magistrate McMullin on a charge of assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm.
