Twenty Cars
Will Not Suffice.

The news that the first of the twenty cars to be supplied the local halibut industry by the Canadian National Railways is west of Winnipeg and on its way to Prince Rupert was received gladly on local fish row yesterday. Now that the first is nearly here the rest will doubtless follow very shortly afterwards. However, although this city is glad to get the twenty, these are not going to remedy the car shortage to any great extent. When one takes into consideration that as many as twelve cars are sometimes needed in a single day at this port it can easily be seen how far twenty more cars are going to go. Therefore, the Canadian National Railway management should not think it has done justly by Prince Rupert yet, but it should realize that it has only started the supply. Indeed one hundred cars would be none too many. The hue and cry for more fish cars will continue even after these twenty have been delivered, that is certain. When one remembers that so far this month there has been only one day when there were sufficient cars to handle the fish offering here, the justification of the agitation for many more cars is apparent.

Gratifying to See
Interest in Power.

Can one of the power propositions around Prince Rupert be made into a successful commercial venture? That is the question that the engineers of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co. are going to answer. Power is an all important matter to the city of Prince Rupert at the present time and the lack of it might at any time cause some big industry to turn away from here. Indeed, the local power available now can little more than supply the demands of the city. In the very near future more power must be found. It is gratifying therefore to see the city taking definite steps towards finding out what may be done at Thulme River and the paper company looking towards Falls River. The establishment of a big power plant and its active operation should come soon, and it cannot come any too soon. From the layman's point of view it would seem that it would be a paying proposition, but there is tremendous capital expenditure involved in the establishment of such a plant.

Great Britain
And Emerald Isle.

There seems to be no improvement in the state of affairs in Ireland and each day brings afresh its list of outrages and bloody deeds that are being perpetrated in the Emerald Isle. One fact must strike the ordinary individual though, and that is the fact that the British Government is handling Ireland at the present time in a very lenient manner and seems to be loathe to make reprisals. Many persons, and these include the most of the returned soldiers, feel that there should be an energetic campaign of reprisals for the attacks on crown forces and this would seem a very reasonable view. It certainly is beginning to appear, as time goes on and the strife continues, that the lawless forces opposing the police of Ireland should be dealt with effectively. There seems little reason for the supporters of the idea that Great Britain is treating Ireland unfairly. Ireland with her new parliament now has an opportunity of showing her ability to govern herself. It is essential both to herself and to Great Britain that she remain a part of the Empire. The recognition of this fact at the outset by the irreconcilables would end the trouble.

M'GILL MAN GIVES
BLOOD TO SIR SAMFormer Minister of Militia Takes Definite Turn for Better

OTTAWA, May 26.—Lieut.-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, former Minister of Militia, has taken a definite turn for the better. His general symptoms are now reported as being more satisfactory than for some time past.

Sir Sam's condition three weeks ago was a matter of grave alarm and the idea of blood transfusion was regarded more or less as one of the last resources.

L. Robertson, who is in his final year of the medical course at McGill, Montreal, volunteered and on May 1 a transfusion of 20 ounces of blood was made.

Sir Sam's condition showed almost immediate improvement. A second transfusion was decided on and this took place Sunday afternoon last. A few hours later he was sitting at his desk in the examination rooms of the university writing on one of his final year test papers.

FUNERAL WAS HELD
THIS AFTERNOONMrs. F. Aiken Laid to Rest in Fairview Cemetery, Canon
Rix Officiating.

The funeral of the late Mrs. F. Aiken took place this afternoon from Haynor Bros', undertaking parlors, Rev. Canon G. A. Rix officiating. Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery.

There were a number of beautiful floral pieces adorning the casket, among them being offerings from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and from the immediate members of the family. The pallbearers were B. F. Self, G. H. Arnold, Fred Gilhuly, J. E. Smith, J. C. Gavigan and Roy Campbell.

TERRACE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christy recently when their eldest daughter, Viola, was married to Claire Giggey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Young. The couple spent a brief honeymoon in Prince Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross expect to move into their new home south of the track in a few days.

G. A. Waite expects to receive a shipment of two Ford cars and a Fordson tractor this spring.

P. Moncton, B.C. land surveyor, has just completed plotting a big area of land for Michael Bros. on the Lakelse side of the river.

The ferry was pulled out this week-end to make repairs to the scows, which were leaking badly. A new deck is to be put in which will make room for more teams.

Cautious

"But, Tommy," said his mother, "didn't your conscience tell you you were doing wrong?"

"Yes," replied Tommy, "but I don't believe everything I hear."

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

May 25, 1911

"Right here in Prince Rupert lies your Jerusalem," said the Rev. T. S. Bartlett, M.A., in a sermon preached at the Methodist Church last evening. Mr. Bartlett's address was of a special nature, on behalf of the work of the Epworth League and Sunday schools of the Methodist Church in Canada.

A meeting has been called for 8 o'clock on Tuesday night with the view of discussing the feasibility of organizing a tennis club.

The sword of Damocles in the shape of a police summons is hanging over the head of good-natured city clerk Woods today. His bull terrier is accused of so far forgetting himself as to attempt to bite a little girl. The father, Mr. Christensen, says he intends holding Mr. Woods responsible for deeds of the dog and the circumstances will probably be investigated tomorrow.

The local merchant and the manufacturer who advertises are doing more to bring about the return to normal prosperity than any other trader.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Thursday, May 26

High, 3:51 a.m., 19.1 feet.
 16:58 p.m., 17.9 feet.

Low, 10:24 a.m., 4.9 feet.
 22:34 p.m., 9.2 feet.

Friday, May 27

High, 4:33 a.m., 18.9 feet.
 17:45 p.m., 17.4 feet.

Low, 11:05 a.m., 5.8 feet.
 23:26 p.m., 9.6 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.
 The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.
