Canadian Railway
May Also Cut Wages.

Whether the Canadian railways will adopt similar action in regard to wages as the railways of the United States have just done is a matter that will be ascertained within a very short time. A slashing and general cut has been made in the country to the south of us and what effect it will have remains to be seen. Railway authorities in the past few months have said on many occasions that the wages in Canada will have to be reduced to carry on business and especially in the case of the Canadian National Railways, which are operating at a huge deficit, something must be done. Therefore, in view of the step of the United States railways, similar action in regard to the Canadian roads would surprise no one.

Is Prince Rupert Bad
Place for Children?

Is Prince Rupert a poor place to bring children up in? In view of recent youthful depredations in the city some people, and especially the parents of the children in question, have been heard to say that it is. But that is a very debatable question and there seems to be no concrete reasons on which to base such a statement. It is said that there is no place in Prince Rupert to raise children besides on the streets where they are bound to come in contact with derogatory influences but that same statement might just as well be said of any other city. There was a time when children were confined to their own yard and warned not to leave it under threat of punishment, but that day is gone. Perhaps it was the better plan. The statement might be ventured with impunity, however, that whatever method one adopts in the discipline of a child that child's conduct still may be controlled by the parent and the parent is responsible.

Parents are Still Responsible.

It is a poor excuse indeed to blame the city at large for a bad boy's actions. If the parents are not to blame and do not feel responsible then it is a pity that they have children. The parents who make such excuses would be the first ones to object if any one else then themselves ventured to take their child in hand. If parents are unable to keep their children away from bad influences and had actions in Prince Rupert then it is very doubtful if they would be able to do so in any other place. The only provision that is made for children of people who are unable to discipline their offspring is found in the reformatories. They are similar to jails and penitentiaries in which men and women who are unable to control their own actions are confined. A good home influence will make good boys and girls unless they are absolutely incorrigible. When boys and girls go astray it is found in nearly every case that there is something wrong with the home influence—something wrong that could be easily remedied if the parents would see to it. People should not blame the public for their failure in bringing up their children unless they are prepared to have the public institutions take them in hand.

When Boys Look
Very Disgusting.

Curfew tolls in Prince Rupert at ten o'clock but there is a certain group of boys about fourteen years of age in the city who may be found disturbing the theatres, roaming the streets and frequenting places where they should not be almost any night at far past that time. The parents of these children do not need to blame the police if they are not kept at home at such hours. If they are not home it is more the fault of the parents than the police. If your fourteen-year-old boy will not come in before ten o'clock at night then you are to blame. If you cannot persuade him to come home then it is time to make him do so. People who have children should be able to devise means of keeping them in order. Suffice it to say that one of the most disgusting sights that can be seen is a lad in knickers sucking at a "pop" bottle in a smoker or on a street corner at the hours approaching midnight.

R. R. No. 1. LOAN, OXT.
 "For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I treated with doctors, and tried nearly everything without benefit. Finally, I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'. Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place".

PROVINCIAL ELECTION IN
SASKATCHEWANVery Quiet Campaign and Likely Martin Government Return with Big Majority

REGINA, June 2.—The quietest political campaign in the history of the province of Saskatchewan is now drawing to a close with nominations today and the elections one week later, on June 9.

The election will terminate the fourth legislature of Saskatchewan, which was chosen on June 26, 1917, and has finished its four year term. In this house, composed of 59 members, there were 51 supporters of the Liberal administration headed by Premier W. N. Martin, K. C.; six Conservatives and two Independents. In addition three members at large were chosen by soldiers overseas. In the new legislature there will be a total of 63 members elected. By a redistribution bill passed by the recent session three cities—Moose Jaw, Regina and Saskatoon—each got two members and the new constituency of Gravelbourg has been established. As the soldier seats will disappear there will be but one seat added to the house.

Present indications point to the government being sustained with as much power as it at present has and that is one reason why the campaign is so quiet. The greatest opposition the Martin Government will have will be from the Independents. The Conservative party is without a leader in Saskatchewan and will, therefore, not put up a serious fight.

TIME TABLE
IS ANNOUNCEDHow Vancouver Will Spend Time in the North Next Week

Several members of the local Board of Trade will likely join the Prince George when she arrives here next week with the Vancouver Board of Trade excursion and will make the northern end of the excursion between here and Anyox and Stewart. The fare for this trip will be the same as the regular round trip fare to Stewart, namely, Twenty-Five Dollars.

The following schedule for the northern end of the trip has been announced:

Arrive Prince Rupert, 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

Leave Prince Rupert, midnight Friday.

Arrive Anyox, 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

Leave Anyox, noon Saturday.

Arrive Stewart, Saturday evening.

Leave Stewart, Sunday morning.

Arrive Prince Rupert 5 o'clock Sunday.

Return to Vancouver, midnight Sunday.

Will Hold Dance

On the evening of the arrival of the excursion here there will be a dance held in the St. Andrew's Hall. Although it will be under the auspices of the local board to entertain the visitors, the orchestra will be one that is being brought from Vancouver with the excursion. It is said to be of unusual excellence and will provide quite a change for local dancers who will, doubtless, turn out enthusiastically.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

June 2, 1911

The customs returns for the month of May have just been issued. They show a total of $13,112.64, an increase over the month of April of $125.87.

Chief Vickers presented his report for the month of May to the members of the police commission at their regular meeting last night. There were no formidable list of serious offences but only the usual number of a minor character.

W. E. Williams, of Williams & Manson, left for Victoria this morning to act as counsel for the 16 strikers to be tried in that city next week.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Thursday, June 2

High, 10:47 a.m., 16.8 feet.

22:53 p.m., 19.7 feet.

Low, 4:44 p.m., 6.3 feet.

16:33 p.m., 7.8 feet.

Friday, June 3

High, 14:36 a.m., 17.7 feet.

23:35 p.m., 20.8 feet.

Low, 5:30 a.m., 5.9 feet.

17:22 p.m., 7.1 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson. The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.
