FUR BUYERS OUT AFTER BEAVER

Temporary Licenses Granted by Dr. Baker to Purchase Pelts From Indians.

Most of the local fur buyers have been given licenses to purchase beaver pelts from the Indians for the Provincial Government and they are now out rounding them up. Dr. Baker, who left for the south yesterday after a tour through the Bulkley, Nechaoo and Fraser Valleys told a Daily News representative that the beaver pelts had been giving the Game Conservation Board considerable trouble. Two or three years ago reports from the various game wardens and from other sources made it clear to the Board that the beaver needed protection and for that reason there has been no open season for trapping beaver declared since that time.

There was nothing difficult about closing beaver trapping except that the Indians are allowed to take sufficient beaver to provide themselves food. Then illicit dealers began buying the skins from the Indians and smuggling them out. They made large profits and the legitimate traders complained that they were discriminated against. Consequently in order to clear up the situation, permits were granted legitimate dealers to buy from the Indians for the Government and the skins are sold at auction in Vancouver. The licenses last until the end of next month after which there will be no more selling and the Provincial Government has promised that at the next session of the Legislature they will recommend to make it a jail sentence to have beaver in possession.

Owing to an imperfect knowledge of the situation Dr. Baker has been somewhat severely criticized by the local dealers and others for his action in regard to trading in beaver pelts.

PARTY LAST NIGHT ON BIRTHDAY OF MISS PEARL DUTHIE

In honor of her birthday, a number of her younger friends assembled in a surprise party last evening at the home of Miss Pearl Duthie, Seal Cove. A pleasant evening was spent singing and dancing. Master Willie Geddes giving clever selections on the violin. Before the party broke up at midnight light refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Guyan, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes, Mrs. G. M. Ritchie; Captain and Mrs. Duthie, Miss Soriano Soriano, Miss Juliet Soriano, Miss Agnes Guyan, Miss Violet Duthie, Miss L. Duthie, Miss G. Ritchie and Master W. Geddes, A. Guyan, J. Geddes, P. Geddes, G. Guyan, and Oliver Shepherd.

MEIGHAN LEADER OF ROUGH STREET GANG

Cleverness and Utter Disregard of Danger Give Him Premier Place.

Thomas Meighan, the popular movie star, appears as a gangster and gunman in his latest picture, "The Frontier of the Stars," which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre, beginning tonight. This is by far the "toughest" role in which the virile star has been seen.

Mr. Meighan has the role of Buck Leslie, leader of the Forsyth street gang, which he holds because of his cleverness, utter disregard of danger and two capable fists. When she is fleeing from Phil Hoyt, a Bowery detective, Buck hides to the roof-tops, and there runs upon Hilda Shea, sister-in-law of the detective, a cripple, who has spent most of her life in a wheel chair on the roof.

From then on is unfolded an interesting study in two entirely different personalities. Hilda with her sweet philosophy of life and her belief that everything is good, and Buck with just as firm a conviction that there is no good. Faire Binney plays opposite the star.

HAROLD GOODWIN, NEW STAR, MAKES A HIT

The patrons of the Empress Theatre will welcome Harold Goodwin, the new star, tonight, when he appears for the first time in "Oliver Twist, Jr.," a play that is taken from Charles Dickens' story of Oliver Twist. This youth whose work William Fox watched for a long time, was very happily cast in the character of Oliver and made a distinct hit.

The picture is fine entertainment. It has been thoroughly well handled in the staging, and an excellent cast supports Goodwin.

Judging by his first starring picture, Harold will soon gather a big following.

MANY PLACES WERE RAINIER THAN HERE

Prince Rupert Had Total of 84.5 Inches, Vancouver, 64.25—September Drier Here.

Prince Rupert, with a total of 84.5 inches precipitation last year, was not the rainiest place in British Columbia. The record high figure was at Surf Inlet where 178.43 inches were recorded. Other places, rainier than this city, were: Banfield, 129.79 inches; Ucluellet, 111.11 inches; Holberg, 125.16 inches; Quatsino, 84.72 inches; Agassiz, 86.37 inches; Britannia Beach, 91.96 inches; Stave River Falls, 94.29 inches.

In September Prince Rupert had but 5.82 inches of rain while Vancouver had 10.37 inches. Vancouver's total for the year was 63.28 inches. The driest place in the province was Tranquille with 6.96 inches.
