

The Brunswick
All Phonographs
in One

This is the phonograph of exclusive features and distinctive beauty. Playing all records by means of the famous "Edison" Reproducer, it requires but a turn of the hand to adapt it to the Edison, Victrola, Columbia or Pathé discs.

The all-wood tone amplifier is another feature making for beauty and purity of tone. The cabinets are of unusual beauty and in a wide range of designs. Every Brunswick is an exquisite union of art, musical and utility.

You are cordially invited to see and hear the various models and compare with all other phonographs.

SCHOOL CHILDREN STOOD AT ATTENTION

Honored For Few Moments Those Who Died Fighting for Their Country.

This morning at eleven o'clock the pupils in the public schools gathered in their assembly halls and sang one or two patriotic songs and spent two minutes in silence in remembrance of those who fell in the Great War.

At the new school the supervising principal addressed them briefly.

The attendance at the public schools last month included 377 boys, 357 girls, total 734. Of these there were 30 Orientals and 5 Indians.

First annual concert of the Junior Choir will be held in the Methodist Church tonight at 8 p.m. Doors open at 7:45. Violinist, Mrs. R. B. Linzey; accompanist, Mrs. J. Gawthorn. Tickets 50c. Come and hear the young folks sing.

On the application of the supervising principal the school board last evening gave permission for the holding of a school concert at Christmas, the proceeds of which will go to purchasing a piano for the Borden Street School, and if there is anything left over will be devoted to a school library. It will be held in the assembly room of the new school.

P. J. McInchergay is in charge of the city police, pending an examination by Medical Officer Dr. J. P. Gade, as to his mental condition. The man in question was found on the streets by Corporal Newham of the R.C.M. Police, acting in a strange manner, and turned over to Officer Bourne, of the city force, who brought him into the station. He said he had a message from the Pope and was praying on the street.

At the meeting of the school board last night, a letter was read from the superintendent of education suggesting that special attention be given to the matter of cultivating a spirit of good will toward the United States. The matter was referred to the supervising principal for action.

The question of jaying off on of the establishments or putting some of them on part time was discussed by the Police Commission last night and laid over for the present. It was shown that it would be almost impossible for a man with family to live on half time salary or even two thirds time.

The price of lumber is advancing in the south and it is only a question of time until it advances here. We still have some stock left that we will move at present prices. If you are going to build, get in touch with us before these stocks are sold or the general price of lumber advances. Certain stocks at reduced prices while they last. Prince Rupert Lumber Company, Seal Cove, Phone 361.

In future visitors to the police lockup who wish to see prisoners will have to speak to them at a distance and for a very short time only. A cage has been installed which makes it impossible for prisoners and their visitors to get within several feet of each other. The Mayor expressed the opinion at the police commission meeting last night that there should be fewer visitors.

An application from H. C. Bailey for a position on the local school staff as musical instructor was filed by the school board at its meeting last night. Mrs. Ling expressed the opinion that Mr. Bailey had no certificate of qualification from the education department and also that the city was as yet too small for such an appointment to be made. She thought the teachers should undertake the work under the supervising principal.
