WHY NOT CLIMB TO TOP OF MOUNTAIN?

One of the Finest Views in the Country From the Summit of Kalen.

At the summit of Kalen mountain, the westerly of the two high peaks at the back of the townsite, is a survey monument that makes a splendid lookout point from which to see the surrounding country. It is easily accessible although the climb is a stiff one. The trail is well beaten and with care cannot easily be missed.

Mountain climbing might become an interesting recreation here. There are all sorts of places to visit, but the mountains on the island are easily accessible and will well repay exploration. All that is needed is some old clothes and strong boots and a pocket lunch and the climber is equipped.

On a clear day the outlook from the mountain top is one of the finest in the country. Away in the distance northerly is a fine range of snow clad mountains and out to sea are most picturesque islands. To look down on Metlakatla from the air and see it and the islands beyond is well worth the climb.

On the way up the mountain, deer are often seen and a few birds. Some of those who made the climb last Sunday saw a deer and a willow grouse and innumerable small birds including a flock of grosbeaks.

P. CHESLEY FOUND OIL SEEPAGES IN THE KITSUMKALUM VALLEY

G. F. Monckton, the mining engineer, states that P. Chesley was the actual discoverer of the oil at Kitsumkalum, which he found in 1914. He says: "On his pointing it out to me I worked out the antediluvials with which the seepages were connected. I was the person who primarily discovered the coal there, as I calculated the position from coal occurrences many miles away and led the prospecting party to the spot in 1913."

"I am not a civil engineer," he says, "but a mining engineer of long experience in British Columbia whose specialty is geology. Lord Rhonda is correctly described in your article as having had the coal field under observation. He was never induced to go further and bond it, as some papers have erroneously stated."

CHRISTMAS VERSES IN LARGE NUMBERS

Some Excellent Poetry But Few Catchy Verses Come to Hand.

It is not so much poetry as catchy verse that McRae Brothers wish. They want verses that will sell to the multitude and the multitude do not care for poetry. The following are some of the verses which have arrived:

Spirit of Christmas.

Tonight, a spirit seems to hover near
That brings sweet comfort to my aching heart;
And calls to memory old friends so dear
Whose paths through life have led them far apart.
It is the spirit of the Christmas-tide!

To thee, loved friend, though in a distant clime,
Mayhap bowed low 'neath sorrow and dull care,
I bid this spirit speed, while sweet bells chime,
And make thy heart as free and light as air.
With thee, may happiness for ever abide.

Barrel of Wishes.

A barrel of wishes most sincere
Christmas greetings and Yuletide cheer,
To last from the first to the end of the year,
For that's the way we do things here.

Christmas Cheer.

The ageless hills roll back the message, dear,
"Peace and Goodwill"—it speeds from sea to sea;
Take, then, this greeting for your Christmas Cheer,
From far Prince Rupert and the heart of me.

The Christmas Message.

Sing hey! Sing Ho! The mistle-toe and holly—
The joyous bells that peal their tidings dear;
Let hearts be glad and down with melancholy—
This Merry Yule, to friends both far and near.

Ring out, sweet bells! Prince Rupert hearts are blending
With those glad tones the old, old sweet refrain—
"May Christmas Joys be yours and love unending,
"As time rolls on and Christmas comes again."

Bells of the North.

The bells of Christmas greet thee from the North,
Where white-peaked splendor shines eternally,
Where harbor rolls its glittering welcome forth,
Prince Rupert—whence my wishes wing to thee.

Across the Sea.

Though across the seas From loved ones far apart,
At this bright and happy time, Sweet memories stir my heart.

And so from Prince Rupert This card I am sending,
To wish you God-speed, And love never ending.

Message of Peace.

When the white snow folds O'er our mountains cold,
When the Christmas trees are gay,
When the Yuletide Bells Their story tell—
We are brothers on Christmas Day.

From the far, far south To our Skeena's mouth
We sent but one message then, Of the Christ Child's birth
And peace on earth, And good will unto men.

The World's Christmas Need.

The World's in need of Friendship—
As she's never been before
And we each can help to bring back
"Those good old days of yore"

The whole world's full of turmoil,
Hot unrest, so hard to still,
Much she needs the balm of friendship,
And the handclasp of good will.

There have been misunderstandings,
Sorry failures, griefs and such,
Now we need the hearty handclasp,
Cheerful hail, and helpful touch.
Each passing day we have to

CONSTIPATION BAD HEADACHES FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after, until some serious complication sets in.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of everyone, then there will be no constipation, sick or bilious spells, dizziness, heartburn, coated tongue, foul breath, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, water brash, etc.

Keep the bowels properly regulated by the use of

and you will enjoy the best of health.

Mrs. Frank Wilsey, R. R. 3, Belmont, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years, I had bad headaches, faint and dizzy spells, and would bloat terribly. I was nearly driven to despair. I had tried so many things that gave me no relief. My mother got me a box of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and told me to give them a fair trial. After I had taken one I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint and dizzy spells and am again healthy. I would not be without Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the world."

Price, 25c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

baffle
With injustice, envy, greed,
While covetousness, and dark suspicion
Makes our Nations' torn hearts bleed.
But a smile has power within it
All such enemies to rout,
And a kind word, softly spoken
Scatters gloom and bitter doubt.
Do not leave it to your neighbor
Show yourself a friend indeed,
Make this old world fit to live in,
Help the old world in her need.

Greeting.

When all the trees are stripped
and bare,
When all the birds depart,
Christmas brings sweet thoughts of you
To blossom in my heart.

My Christmas Wish.

May the giver of gifts
Give unto you
The gifts that you crave for
Noble and true.
May your heart be filled
With courage rare,
May your days be happy
And without care.
And I send my best wishes
For Christmas Day
Whether the skies be blue or gray.
