

ACKROYD IS APPOINTED

Considerable Discussion as to the Merit of Applicant—Mayor Opposes Appointment.

William S. Ackroyd, formerly of the provincial police force, was appointed last night by the police commission to fill the next vacancy on the city police force. The application of Mr. Ackroyd, which was turned down this year once before, had the endorsement of the Great War Veterans' Association and the appointment was moved by Commissioner Macdonald and seconded by Commissioner Myhill Jones.

There was a lengthy discussion as to the merits of the applicant in which Mayor Rochester stated that he could not support the appointment. He knew a good deal about the man. He had seen some things with his own eyes and part of his record in other positions had not been to his credit. No officer should be placed on the force who could not be trusted and he considered the police commission would be making a big mistake in doing so.

Defended by Macdonald, Commissioner Macdonald said that he was not prepared to turn a man's application down on just talk. Chief Minto had referred to Ackroyd as an efficient officer and the G. W. V. A. had endorsed his application. It was his opinion that he would be a decided asset to the police force. If he did not prove up he would move for his dismissal as fast as he had moved for his appointment. It had been said that the police force would not stand for the appointment but he would say that the police force was not going to make the appointments to the force as long as he was a commissioner.

Commissioner Myhill Jones said that a lot of detrimental statements had been made of the applicant but he had been an efficient officer and since his return from the war may have had a rough time. He would favorably consider the application now but let him make one false step and he would go. He had a good record and was endorsed by Chief Minto and others.

"Would these people give him a recommendation?" asked the mayor.

"I think so," replied Commissioner Myhill Jones.

Guided by Chief. "Well, I know they wouldn't. Vickers does not recommend him and in my opinion two wrongs will never make a right," declared the mayor. "He would be opposed strongly on the force and I think we should be guided by the chief. There is no comparison between his record and Logan's and the latter is also an applicant."

On the question being put, Commissioners Macdonald and Myhill Jones supported the appointment of Mr. Ackroyd and Mayor Rochester went on record as opposing it.

Applications were also received from Detective F. W. Sheldon, Edmonton, F. G. Beale, city, and verbally from George P. Logan.

CARIBOO PAPER URGES COUNTER ATTACK UPON CHURCHES OF COUNTRY

STANLEY, B.C., Mar. 11.—The Cariboo Observer carries the report of a Moderation League meeting recently and records the passing of a resolution reminiscent of the wild and woolly west as described by Bret Harte and Mark Twain. Asserting that the prohibition movement is a campaign promoted by "puritanical sectarians" against the liberty of the individual, the resolution urges a counter-attack by developing the idea that church property be not exempt from taxation. If that proves ineffective, it goes on, an amusement tax should be paid for admission to any place of public worship, on the grounds that "until the privileges of the clergy he in question, respect for the liberty of the layman will never obtain."

The anti-prohibition forces explain the necessity for aggressive action by declaring that they are in general agreement with the contention of Caesar in his commentaries, "O.K'd by Napoleon and U. S. Grant," that no position is defensible from which an attack cannot be launched.

KILLED GIRL TO SAVE SUFFERING

Man Acquitted when Proved He Shot Her for Humane Purpose

BRUSSELS, March 11.—The question whether one person is guilty of a crime in hastening the death of another who is suffering from a mortal wound has been decided in the negative here in the case of a married man who shot and killed a girl who had attempted to commit suicide. His plea that she was dying and that he killed her rather than watch her suffer. He was arrested, but acquitted of the charge of murder by the Brabant Court of Assizes.

The man in the case was Jerome Hermans, 32 years old, and the girl was Coline Vandeyck, age 18. They had a love affair and the attempt at suicide resulted. The shooting occurred in the Bois de Cambre, Brussels' largest public park.

Second Shot. "Coline ran from the path into a thicket," said Hermans. "I heard a shot and ran after her. She had shot herself in the temple but was still alive. I could not see her suffer and I took her revolver and shot her in the neck. Then she was still and I shot myself."

Hermans recovered from his wound and was in prison for eight months until acquitted. Medical testimony given at the trial was to the effect that the girl's suicidal wound ultimately would have been fatal.

"THE PRINCE CHAP" AT THE WESTHOLME

Story of Sentimental Artist Who Upsets Love Affair by Acquiring a Child.

Thomas Meighen, who was so large a factor recently in the success of "The Miracle Man" and "Male and Female," is the featured player in the picturization of the well known play, "The Prince Chap" to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

Mr. Meighen is another of those young men who became actors when their fathers advised them to be something else. The elder Meighen sent Thomas to college with the idea of making a physician of him. Instead, the youthful graduate broke into dramas in a small part with Henrietta Crossman in "Miss Nell." Subsequently he played opposite Grace George and William Collier and went to London in the leading role in "The College Widow." He returned to America and took up screen work, appearing opposite practically every prominent feminine star of the cinema and becoming noted for his clear-cut, intelligent performances in roles varying from bullies and master crooks to ex-army captains and society men.

In "The Prince Chap," Mr. Meighen is a sentimental artist who upsets his love affair by acquiring a four-year-old child as his ward, but who later achieves happiness. William De Mille produced the picture.

NEVER TRUST FRIEND TO PROPOSE FOR YOU

Don't even trust your best friend to do your proposing for you!

Do that little job yourself or well, just see "The Beloved Villain" at the Empress tonight. In this latest comedy-drama the complications of the famous Priscilla, John Alden and Miles Standish situation are re-enacted, this time with a brilliance of wit one expects of a French setting.

As a flirtatious French wife it is said that Miss Hawley has one of the best roles of her career. It is entirely different from either "Miss Hobbs" or "Food for Scandal"—but gives the star plenty of opportunity. The very versatility of the young comedienne makes it a surety that she will be a public favorite long after other less talented stars are forgotten.

Rasmey Wallace, her new leading man, is virile and convincing as Paul Mythe, a young American doctor who is asked by a French friend to propose for him. When Mythe falls in love with the girl himself the complications come thick and fast, ending with a carnival at Nice which is the last word in brilliancy.

An account from the Prince Rupert Boat House for launch hire has been returned by the police commission, the charges made being considered exorbitant.
