Miss Laut Sees
Wonderful Things.

Visitors often see more of our country than we do. They see its possibilities and perhaps have a better basis of comparison than people who are on the ground. Miss Agnes G. Laut, the well known writer, has in MacLean's Magazine an article on the National Railway in which she speaks appreciatively of this part of the country. She says: "When Canadian oil reaches the shipping point it means Edmonton a second Pittsburg, Vancouver a second San Francisco, Prince Rupert a second Seattle, Terrace, British Columbia, a second Spokane." She also mentions that Prince George will become a second Butte or Helena, humbling with mining and lumbering and pulp activity. "These things have materialized in the United States in the last twenty years and they will as inevitably materialize in Canada."

Inside Passage
To Vancouver.

Miss Laut says of the scenery: "Take the Inside Passage Way down from Prince Rupert to Vancouver and American points. As a scenic route, it is the most beautiful thing in the world. There is nothing in Norway to approach it in beauty. I shall not try to describe that beauty. I shall do it elsewhere in another place. There is nothing in the East Coast or the West Coast of America to approach that beauty. It is a sea calm as a mill pond, with a Rocky Mountain panorama of moving pictures in color on both sides. It is a Grand Canyon of Colorado with the sea between."

I suppose you know that the Grand Canyon of the Colorado is what has made tourist traffic the great source of income to the Santa Fe. Well, here is a Grand Canyon for two days and a night with a sea calm as a mill pond! Do you know how many steamships our Nationals have for tourists? Two! They could fill twenty to the roof.

"I was told the rains would fall on me so continuously in this region that I would begin to sprout shoulder feathers like a duck, or fins like a fish. I was on this coast for fourteen days in the transition period from summer to autumn, when the rains are supposed to deluge your soul with gray blankets of mist and depression. There was exactly one shower and it was at night. I suppose people, who hope for the very worst, will say that was a Satanic pre-arrangement to delude me.

"Well, I was deluded. I was deluded into thinking it the most beautiful coastal trip in the world; and I know the coastal trips of America from Labrador to Vera Cruz, and from California to Alaska. There is nothing else like it in the world. It is warm in winter and cool in summer, and beautiful as a dream; and our Nationals have exactly two steamers to handle the tourist traffic."

Benefit for Local Lad.

There is to be a benefit concert on Monday for a local lad who lost a hand through the bursting of a firecracker at the last Dominion Day celebration. The committee having in charge the work of putting on this public benefit points out that they are acting in purely a gratuitous manner. An action was commenced against the city and the Sons of Canada and several individual members of the celebration committee. The defendants found that there had been no carelessness on the part of any of the defendants and denied all liability. The action was discontinued and a committee was formed to take up a public subscription for the lad. It is proposed to raise as large a sum as possible to be paid to a trustee to provide for the education of the boy and to, as far as possible, compensate him for the loss sustained. The city has undertaken to put up dollar for dollar with the committee, not to exceed $1,000.

It is unfortunate that accidents of this description should occur from time to time. Public spirited citizens who have celebrations of this kind in hand from year to year feel that parents should co-operate to prevent the use of dangerous firecrackers. Those who celebrate Dominion Day should, however, be liberal on this occasion and see that the lad gets such help as will do away with the handicap under which he lives.

May Day Performance by Presbyterian Sunday School Children
Pretty Affair.

The May Day concert put on by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church in aid of the building fund last evening was one of the prettiest affairs seen in the city in many a day. The talent for the event was selected from the children of the Presbyterian Sunday School augmented with members of Mrs. Crewe's dancing classes. All reflected the excellent training and natural ability that must have been necessary to produce such a pleasing result as was attained. The entertainment was successful in every way and the Empress Theatre was filled with an audience that showed the full appreciation that it felt for the quality of the various numbers given. No small credit is due to the management of Mrs. R. W. Grieve who was assisted by E. Teng, conductor, Mrs. T. M. Spencer, Miss Lily Scott, Miss Jessie Scott and A. M. Brenner.

Thomas McGlynn was the chairman and in the course of his opening remarks traced the history of the May Day festivities from the ancient times of the Romans up to the present day.

Crowning of Queen.

The opening number was the chorus "Crowning of the May Queen" by a group of the girls of the school during which the May Queen, Miss Helen Morrison, followed by her maids passed up the aisle of the theatre through a guard of honor made up of boys of the Naval Brigade.

The girls, indeed, presented a pleasing appearance in their white dresses bearing profuse bouquets. The formal ceremony of crowning the Queen of the May took place on the stage. The maids who assisted Miss Morrison were Misses Dorothy McDonald, Kathleen Stork, Dorothy Stephen, Helen McRae, Doris Candow and Lois McRae.

Drill Numbers.

The Twining of the Maypole, a well carried out drill, followed and then a splendid chorus "Farmer Lads" sung by six small boys of the school. Another drill, which did great credit to the trainers, was the Scarf Drill which, though long and intricate, was presented without a single slip.

The group consisted of about twenty girls who went through the weaving and streaming of the red, white and blue scarfs producing effects that were pleasing indeed.

The song and dance by the little fairies was pretty and well rendered. Miss Helen McLeod was queen of the Fairies and her maids were Misses Jean Wilson and Marguerite Manson. They were assisted by a number of little girls who sang and danced daintily.

Dancing and Singing.

The Sisimella Dance by Miss Margaret Aeland and the Spring Dance by Miss Jean Grieve were also intricate and precisely performed.

The Russian Dance by Misses Lorna McLaren, Grace Ackroyd and Norma Rogers was pleasing as well.

Misses Enid and Claire Wilson sang the duet "My Fairysland" in a winning manner and responded to an encore with "Pussy Willows."

Miss Kathleen Grant sang the solo "A May Morning" and was excellently received, responding to an encore with "I Love You."

The rendition of selections by Mrs. Bryant's Hawaiian Quintette consisting of Mrs. Bryant, Miss Blanche Curtin, Douglas Stork, Alex. Rix and Sydney Bazzett-Jones was another charming feature of the program.

The accompanists for the evening were Miss Senker, Mrs. J. A. Hinton, Mrs. W. E. Williams and H. A. Price.
