Right of Free Speech a Farce.

There is no such thing as the right of free speech or free thought. We dare not say what we think and we dare not think what we would, or at any rate not think aloud.

Any person that speaks his mind is a most disagreeable person. He cannot ever get on well with his fellows.

Take a newspaper as an instance. If we were to say what we think of some people we should be in the courts half the time.

There is a difference between freedom and license. There are people who live here and who hold conscientious convictions, which, if expressed publicly, would result in riot if not in lynch.

Difference Between Freedom and License.

There is a difference between freedom and license. There are people who live here and who hold conscientious convictions, which, if expressed publicly, would result in riot if not in lynch.

We believe in as large a degree of freedom of speech as possible, and yet the utterance of some opinions might do much harm to the community or the country.

Disintegration Has No Value.

No man lives and no man dies without having an effect on the community. That is what an ancient philosopher said and it is as true today as ever it was.

When an editor comes out with a particularly virulent attack on somebody or something, he is slapped on the back and egged on by those who enjoy a fight whether a pugilistic encounter, a dog fight, or a verbal contest.

Until He Took "Fruit-a-lives" The Fruit Medicine

R. R. No. 1, LORNE, ONT.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with rheumatism. I treated with doctors, and tried nearly everything without benefit. Finally, I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'. Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place".

MILLER GIVES HIS EVIDENCE

Details of Kidnapping Came Out This Morning in Court.

Evidence of Jack Miller, chief witness for the crown, and of W. J. Nelson, customs officer, was taken this morning in the Michelson kidnaping case. At noon adjournment was made until tomorrow morning when further evidence for the prosecution will be submitted.

In giving his evidence Miller told of the events leading up to the kidnaping and what had transpired on the boat Valorous on November 24. He had made a deal with Swan Swanson, the man who was shot in Ketchikan recently, for the sale of 40 cases of liquor to be paid for on delivery on the boat.

Miller was asked to go into engine room to receive payment and while going down the dark companionway after Swanson he flashed his torch and saw at the bottom of the steps three men including Michelson. Some one grabbed his feet and he fell down to find Michelson standing over him with an iron bar in his hand.

Speaking in Norwegian, Miller attempted to persuade them not to take him to Dundas Island and finally they decided to let him off at Digby. At this time the boat was approaching Mella-katla and, turning around, they stopped at Digby Island and assisted Miller, Tate and Bradford to embark into a ten-foot skiff. The boat carried on to sea after this. The next time Miller had seen Michelson was on his arrest here.

Under Cover of Darkness.
W. H. Johnson, conducting a long cross-examination, endeavored to shake the evidence of Miller and bring out illicit proceedings on his part. He emphasized the fact that the delivery had been made in the dead of night under the cover of the dark. In the course of this examination Miller told of a secret panel in the boat inside of which it would be possible to conceal twenty cases of liquor.

W. J. Nelson, customs officer, told of seizing the boat for having failed to clear on the date in question. A .303 rifle and a .32 automatic revolver loaded had been found.
