DAILY EDITION. Tuesday, May 10, 1921.

Dr. Tolmie Will Be Welcomed Here.

If Dr. Tolmie can come to Prince Rupert for the opening of the Fall Fair, Prince Rupert people will give him a hearty welcome. As a minister of the crown he has a standing and influence which no private citizen can hope to have. More than that, Dr. Tolmie is one of the few really capable men in the Meighen cabinet who really understand their business.

Dr. Tolmie is a veterinary surgeon and farmer. He has always been intimately connected with the livestock industry and with agricultural fairs where he has acted as judge of cattle, horses and other livestock. He has a good deal of executive ability and general good sense. Such a man would be an inspiration here and might give the fair directors many valuable hints on how to improve the fair and rouse interest in the annual event.

Group System In Politics.

Manitoba has been experimenting with the group system of politics. She has had a Government without a majority in the legislature. In spite of the fact that only a minority were elected to support the Premier, members of the other groups have hesitated to defeat the Government and precipitate a crisis in provincial politics. Premier Norris has been carrying on for some months with a gun to his head all the time and it needed a lot of careful finesse to prevent a collapse.

Under the British form of parliamentary government, the executive holds office until it loses the confidence of parliament as expressed in a vote. Directly a majority of the members vote against the Government, that Government resigns or is dismissed and another takes its place. Under that system, the members are usually divided into two large groups, those who support the general policy of the Government and those who oppose it. This leaves plenty of room for individual criticism on both sides. In Manitoba there were several groups and those who supported the general policy of Premier Norris were less than half the legislature. The only constitutional test of such support, however, is in a vote of the House and on no occasion was the Government defeated, except once in committee, which is not considered important.

Ship Launching On Thursday.

On Thursday next the first Prince Rupert built ship will glide into the water after being properly baptised by Mrs. G. W. Peck, wife of the member for the district. This will be a great event locally. It places Prince Rupert on the map as a place where ships can be built just as well as at any other place. It is to be hoped that the two vessels now on the stocks will not be the last, but that the Wallace Company may secure more contracts before the time of their lease expires and will be able to keep the plant going. Everything is there that is necessary to build ships and the company is working along business lines. We hope they will be able to stay with us.

Arthur Stringer Visits the City.

"Who the Hell is Arthur Stringer?" The distinguished author is still chuckling to himself over the crude inquiry made by a leading local man when told yesterday that Arthur Stringer was in town. Mr. Stringer is a novelist and short story writer of repute who was here yesterday on an educational trip. He is a Canadian and for many years lived in New York but returned in order that his son might be born a Canadian. He is now living in Canada and working here, making occasional visits to New York. Mr. Stringer is the best interpreter of Canadian life alive today.

Mr. Stringer was travelling with the McLean's Magazine party. McLean's is a national magazine with an unsuitable name. It is making a fair bid to become the great Canadian journal but to do so it must have a name dissociated from any one person. Out west we do not know McLean and do not care about him, but we are interested in a national magazine.

Years Of Suffering Ended By "Fruit-a-lives"

112 MAZEN ST., ST. JOHN, N. B.
"It is with pleasure that I write to tell you of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine 'Fruit-a-lives', made from fruit juices. I was a great sufferer for many years from Nervous Headaches and Constipation. I tried everything, consulted doctors; but nothing seemed to help me until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'."

After taking several boxes, I was completely relieved of these troubles and have been unusually well ever since. Miss ANNIE WARD.

Early this morning Charles G. Strombeck and his brother, John, started for Alice Arm on a prospecting trip in their 18 foot gas boat "Andy Linton" on which they navigated from Cape Mudge, Vancouver Island, to Stewart.
