

DAFFODIL BALL WAS A GREAT SOCIAL EVENT

Unusually Brilliant Affair This Year Under Queen Mary Chapter I. O. D. E.

The annual daffodil ball is always an important social event, but this year it was even more so than usual. The Queen Mary Chapter I. O. D. E., under whose auspices it is held every year on Easter Monday, had devoted even more care than usual to the ball and it was indeed a brilliant affair. The gay gowns stood out in marked contrast to the more sombre tints of the Lenten season which had just closed and the decorations in the daffodil colors of green and yellow were unusually pleasing. The attendance was not unaccountably large as has been the case with many dances and everyone present seemed to enjoy every minute.

Supper served at midnight was skillfully prepared by a committee of ladies and was most appetizing. Those responsible for this part of the entertainment were Mesdames Hunter, Miller, Morrissey, Pringle, Healey, Clements, Jenns, and Fisher. The tables and the room having been decorated most tastefully in daffodil colors by Mrs. Parkin and Mrs. Grieve.

Adding to the general effect of beautiful gowns and charming ladies in the ballroom was the particularly artistic decoration scheme, the work of Mrs. Pattinson, Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Ackroyd, who, aided by several temperamentally artistic gentlemen, changed the somewhat austere hall into a fairyland of blending colors. The electrical work of Pattinson & Lang also added a most pleasing touch.

The invitations were prepared and sent under the supervision of a committee composed of Mesdames Davidson, Steen, Hunter, Miller, McMorde and Clements. Acting as masters of ceremony were Mrs. Steen, Mrs. Pattinson, Mrs. McMorde and Mrs. Dawson. The grand march was led by the regent, Mrs. Blance, with Mr. Blance, Howard White's augmented orchestra provided music of the very best and even though the opening was early, it was half past two before the last strains of the home waltz died away and the dancers, unwillingly left for home.

Grandma is Their Doctor

"ON an old-fashioned bureau, in a house I know, lies a large-sized New Testament with the binding well worn, and with it a much-used old copy of Dr. Chase's Receipt Book. When the calves have the colic or the neighbor's baby the ear-ache, 'Grandma' hands out well-assimilated advice from the Dr. Chase Book. When 'Grandma' herself feels 'run-down,' Dr. Chase's Nerve Food stands ready on the dining-room table among the salt and pepper shakers."

In these few simple words Mrs. Bert Smith, Way's Mills, Que., beautifully describes the way in which many a grandmother is a blessing to her family and to her neighbors as a guardian of health.

And what finer compliment can be paid to Dr. Chase's Receipt Book and Dr. Chase's Medicines than the approval of such mothers of experience as the one here described.

Just as in this home, Dr. Chase's Almanac hangs on the wall in the great majority of Canadian homes, and in the cupboard or medicine chest will be found one or more of Dr. Chase's Medicines ready for use in case of emergency.

If you did not receive a copy of Dr. Chase's Almanac it will be sent free by Ed-monton, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
