BRINGING UP FATHER

NEW OWNER
OF LAKELSE

Managing Director W. G. Watson
Pays First Visit to the Hot Springs.

TERACE, B. C., May 16.—J. Bruce Johnstone of Lakelse Lake Hot Springs will leave tomorrow for Prince Rupert, where Mrs. Johnstone now is and where he will make his home. W. G. Watson, managing director of Lakelse Hot Springs Ltd., which company has acquired the property from Mr. Johnstone, has been making his first visit to the hot springs. The appearance of the property has pleased him much better than he had expected, he says, and he is most optimistic.

The present hotel building Mr. Watson plans to have renovated completely and partially reconstructed, and other buildings erected alongside to take care of visitors during this coming summer. A large concrete bathing pool thirty feet long will also be put in immediately to prevent visitors having to wait their turn at the individual baths now in the hotel building. Clearing operations will be commenced immediately in the vicinity of the hotel and continued into the fall, and the land brought under cultivation as soon as possible to provide garden and dairy produce for the hotel. The heat from the hot springs will be utilized to grow fruit out of season which will be an added attraction to the place.

Mr. Watson also leaves for Prince Rupert this afternoon to arrange for certain supplies for his project.

MAURICE SHOCKLEY TAKES HONORS IN UNIVERSITY EXAMS.

Further Results of B.C. University Tests Announced in City

H. Maurice Shockley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shockley, Seventh Avenue East, has been awarded honors in the third year electrical engineering examinations at the University of Toronto, according to results of the tests which have just reached the city. Mr. Shockley returned here last week and is spending the holidays in the city, having started summer work in his line at the dry dock this morning.

More complete returns from the University of B.C. received in the city show the following results for local students:

Miss Caroline Mitchell—Second class in English, 2, Physics, Spanish, French and Mathematics. Passed in English, 4, and History.

Archibald L. Grant—Second class in Mathematics. Passed in Chemistry, 4, English, 1, English, 2, History and Physics.

Kathleen L. Grant—Second class in English, 18b, English, 6, English, 11, and History, 5.

J. R. Mitchell—First class in Geology, 3. Second class in Chemistry, 2. Passed in Geology, 7, Geology, 8, and English, 17.

THE DANTSANT IN HONOR OF MRS. PECK
ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Local Troup Girl Guides Put on Pretty Event Saturday Afternoon.

The dantsant given in the De Luxe hall on Saturday afternoon by the Girl Guides in honor of Mrs. C. W. Peck proved a pretty and enjoyable affair. There were thirty tables which were daintily decorated with flowers and foliage and at these the guests sat and had their tea between dances. Splendid music was provided by Miss Phoebe Senkler and William Martin. Those assisting Mrs. Martin, the acting captain of the local Girl Guides troupe, were Misses Norah Phillipson, Constance McMullin, Betty Bloomfield, Peggy Gillett and Pete Tremayne.

CHEERS FOR KING AT COMMUNIST MEETING

Woman Cuffed Wounded Officer
in Trafalgar Square Meeting

LONDON, May 16.—The temper of the people toward the Communists who are permitted to preach their doctrine here unhindered, was shown by an incident in Trafalgar Square the other day.

After the strains of the "Red Flag" had been started at a Communist meeting, a former officer, wounded so badly he could scarcely stand, stood up in front of the crowd numbering several thousand, and called for cheers for the King.

The response to his appeal was ear-splitting. This so enraged one of the women members of the Communist crowd that she rushed upon the officer and cuffed him soundly. Thereupon he called for three cheers for the Queen, the Prince of Wales and finally for law and order.

ADAMLESS EDEN IN MIDDLE OF LONDON

LONDON, May 16.—What is described as an "Adamless Eden" is about to be opened here in the form of a small park where London working girls may rest and meditate undisturbed by young men.

The plan originated with the Metropolitan Public Gardens Association which is seeking to obtain for the purpose four acres of waste land near Hyde Park.
