—any hour of the day—one of your household comes along with a nasty cut or bruise, a burn, scald or sore. It's then you realize how it pays to have Zam-Buk always handy. Just a touch and Zam-Buk takes out all fiery pain or smarting irritation. At the same time it purifies the tissues, prevents dangerous festering or ulceration, ensures speedy healing.

Zam-Buk's unrivalled antiseptic and healing virtues are derived from a unique blending of herbal oils and extracts. Animal fats and coarse drugs found in ordinary ointments and salves have no part in Zam-Buk. It's herbal throughout.

"For over ten years Zam-Buk has been our household remedy," writes Mrs. S. B. Folkins, Somerville, Mass.: "There has never been a healer made to take its place. We wouldn't be without Zam-Buk whatever it cost. It never fails in burns, scalds, cuts, chafing, and innumerable other skin troubles."

For healing cold sores, cracked hands, eczema, and chilblains Zam-Buk is invaluable. Also in ulcers, ringworms, abscesses, piles, poisoned wounds and obstinate wounds. 33 drugstores and stores at 30c. 3 boxes for $1.25. Trial sample for 1c. stamp from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

FINAL MEETING OF CAMPAIGN

Mayor McClymont Takes Platform for Harry Rochester's Candidature.

ANONYMOUS LETTER READ LAST NIGHT

Irrelevant Incidents Aroused Interest During Course of Proceedings.

At stages in last night's rally for Harry B. Rochester, as candidate for mayor, there were threatening moments when it appeared that some of the repartee and sensation that characterized municipal campaign meetings ten years ago might be forthcoming, but these moments did not last long and although the meeting was the liveliest of the campaign there was really little of the sensational about it. It was largely attended and seemed favorably inclined towards the candidate for whom it was called, although there were opposition supporters in the audience who at times broke out.

George H. Munro was the chairman, both mayoralty candidates and Ex-Mayor McClymont were on the platform, as well as a good number of the aldermanic, school board and police commission candidates.

Mayor McClymont came out flatfooted for Rochester and caused the first thrill of the evening by reading excerpts from a deplorable anonymous letter that Ald. Rochester had received when the first announcement of his candidature some two months ago was made. The mayor said that read his feelings were lukewarm for Rochester before he had read this letter, after reading it his mind had been fully made up to support him. He did not charge the Nickerson interests with having anything to do with the letter but he knew that the boomerang would rebound and the writer would suffer the consequences. Ald. Rochester had never been afraid to make the first move when sitting at the council board and his spine was not made of spaghetti. The mantle he himself had carried for three years could well be handed on to Ald. Rochester. His work might not be brilliant, but it would be safe and where brilliance and safety were concerned he would have safety.

No Hard Feelings.

The mayor said that in retiring from the chief magistracy of the city he had no hard feelings. The bootleggers were special enemies of his, but he had no hard feelings against them. They were done with him and he hoped he was done with them. He had been opposed to the principle of the big school building and would have favored smaller buildings in various sections of the town. He had perhaps not achieved all the things he would have desired in his regime but he had done the best he could. As for his work the archives of the city hall were always open and if, after reading them, any wished to take issue

Wright Sits Down.

In the course of S. E. Parker's speech the "whispering" campaign of the opposition to Nickerson was referred to and the Plaindealer mentioned.

"Do you mean to say that the Plaindealer is conducting a whispering campaign?" interrupted F. S. Wright from the audience.

"I mean to say that the Plaindealer is carrying on a campaign of innuendo," reiterated Mr. Parker. "If you have anything to state come up on the platform like a man and do it or sit down."

Mr. Wright sat down.

The Delegation.

Another stirring moment was in the course of Douglas Sutherland's address. He referred to the mysterious delegation that was alleged to have waited on Mr. Nickerson and threatened to name them several times until Mr. Nickerson asked him to name them if he could. The names of Oliver Besner, "Dude" Robertson and Fred Duhoard were named and Mr. Nickerson said that they were right but there seemed to be a difficulty about the fourth. Jack Miller was named which Mr. Nickerson denied and one of the audience offered to bet $200 it was not Miller. The matter dropped with that and the fourth member of the delegation was not named on the platform.

Other speakers of the evening were L. W. Patmore, Fred Shaw, Mrs. E. C. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. E. Ling, M. M. Stephens, R. T. J. Rose, S. D. Macdonald, Alderman Rochester, G. W. Nickerson, Tom Silversides, George Kerr, J. H. Kelly, J. G. Weston, and D. McD. Hunter. The meeting closed about 11 o'clock.

ELKS PREPARING TO SECURE QUARTERS

Definite Recommendation Expected to be Made Within a Few Days.
