PIONEER PROSPECTOR REVISITS SCENE OF FORTUNE'S DISCOVERY

Ole Pearson, Who Had Dream Presaging Wealth, Is in the City.

Ole Pearson, one of the original locators of the Dolly Varden mine at Alice Arm, is in the city after having spent a week in the northern silver camp renewing old acquaintances and revisiting old scenes, after an absence of seven years in Sweden his home, where he was compelled to return in 1914 on account of illness sustained as a result of the hardships undergone in the hills in prospecting days. On Wednesday morning, Mr. Pearson will again start out for Sweden.

Mr. Pearson noticed that a great and pleasing transformation had taken place in Alice Arm during his long absence. The town had grown from a few prospectors' cabins and the Dolly Varden mine had become a modern and operating plant. It was his only regret that his health does not warrant his remaining there but he feels that when he again regains strength that the tug of the B.C. hills will bring him back again to the life he loves.

Mr. Pearson is the prospector who had the romantic dream that is said to have preceded the discovery of the Dolly Varden mine. That was in 1916 when he and Ole Evindsen and a few other prospectors were the only men who had ever pierced into the rugged wilds of the Kit-sault River Valley.

PULP MEN VISITED UNION BAY POWER PROJECT AT WEEK-END

Over the week-end Mr. Emerson, accompanied by E. F. Duly, local manager and Engineers Crowell & Leland, paid a visit to the Union Bay power site at the mouth of Wark Canal. They made a preliminary examination leaving here on Saturday morning and returning to the city just before the Prince George sailed. The trip was made on the company launch, Seal Cove.

John Emerson, president of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co., returned to Vancouver last night after having spent a few days here conferring with the local officials of the company and the city council. The latter have gone on record as favoring a plebiscite on granting power to the water concessions. The matter will again be discussed at tonight's meeting of the council.

HARMONY SIX HAS POPULAR DANCES

On Saturday Night Mrs. Ben Self and E. Craggs Were Winners in Waltz Competition.

The Harmony Six Orchestra gave another splendid dance in the De Luxe Hall on Saturday night at which there were about 75 couples in attendance. The feature of the evening was the prize waltz competition, which was won by Mrs. B. F. Self and Eddie Craggs. The music at the dance was of the usual high class order which makes dancing indeed a pleasure. The six-piece orchestra is made up of "Stew" Scriven, violinist and leader; Dave Fanthorpe, piano; Frank Schofield, cornet; Ball Harstead, trombone; Jimmie Provost, banjo, and Billie Martin, drums. Tommy Smith was master of ceremonies.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

BARRIE has written a parody of Mrs. Asquith's book which he calls "Knees I Have Sat Upon." There are some things that should never be told and this is one.

I know a dumb thick-headed mullit
That I should like to poke,
He will accept a favor but
He cannot take a joke.

BEING asked the difference between a gentleman and a gent a friend of mine replied: "A gent is a person that chews gum, gets his neck shaved and in conversation with his friends says 'I aint.'"

THESE patronize home-industry people make me tired. The other day one of them went off and got married.

YOU all know the chap that can't even run a peanut stand successfully. He is the man who knows exactly how to run the Government.

IT was a humorist who said he did not wish to be opened with prayer when asked if he would like to see a clergyman before an operation.

THE latest sport in which the girls engage is that of "keeping 'em danglin'." There is no need to explain the game to the men and the women know all about it already.

THE difference between fact and fiction is clear as the difference between day and night. In fiction they live happy ever after but in fact they—(sh, my wife may read this.)

The only objection to Prince Rupert is the number of old people around who have not yet celebrated their fortieth birthday.

Be young my boy,
Let naught annoy,
Keep happy though
You have to row
The boat of life
Mid care and strife,
Keep smiling when
With other men
To all the shows
Your sweetheart goes.
Stiffen your lip
And take this tip
Be young today
Keep age at bay.

FINE OFFERING OF SUMMER PICTURES AT THE THEATRES

Lahoma is the offering at the Westholme Theatre tonight. It is a western play with all the thrills and romance of the west. It deals with early days in Oklahoma, where danger walked hand in hand with romance. It is said to be "filled with feeling, ruggedly beautiful, a story to tear your heart strings, wet your eyes and keep you smiling."

At the Empress tonight "The Miracle of Manhattan at Night" is a story of high life in New York with all its attractions. It deals with cabarets and social events and is sufficiently exciting to interest everyone.

Fred Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stephens, Emerson Place, is still in Montreal spending holidays and will return home about the middle of next week. He did not go to Jersey City to see the world's heavy-weight championship bout.
