PULP PLANTS IN PROVINCE

Powell River and Ocean Falls Largest Ones—Prince Rupert and Prince George to Rank High.

Seven pulp and paper plants already in operation in the province of British Columbia have a daily capacity of 310 tons of sulphite pulp, 390 tons of ground wood pulp, 80 tons of sulphate pulp, and 445 tons of newsprint. Four more pulp plants contemplated or in the course of erection will bring the production up to 410 tons of sulphite pulp, and 815 tons of newsprint besides the quantities of ground wood pulp and sulphite pulp which have already been given.

The Powell River Company's plant at Powell River and the Pacific Mills at Ocean Falls run closely for the biggest production figures in the province, the former having a daily capacity of 50 tons of sulphite, 150 tons of ground wood pulp and 225 tons of newsprint, a total of 475 tons, while the total capacity of the Ocean Falls plant is 460 tons comprising 50 tons of sulphite pulp, 150 tons of ground wood pulp, 40 tons of sulphate pulp and 220 tons of newsprint.

All the other plants in the province fall far behind these two in production capacity. The Whalen Pulp and Paper Co., Ltd., at three plants, has a total production of 210 tons of sulphite pulp daily. The capacity of the Swanson Bay plant is 50 tons, Port Alice, 80 tons, and Mill Creek, 80 tons.

The Beaver Cove Lumber and Pulp Company's plant at Beaver Cove, on Vancouver Island, has a capacity of 40 tons of sulphate; and the Western Canada Pulp and Paper Co. at Port Mellon, near Vancouver, 40 tons of ground wood pulp.

Proposed Plants. Of the proposed plants, the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co. at Prince Rupert will have the largest capacity and third largest in the province with plans for the production of 40 tons of sulphite pulp on the opening of the mill with the first unit and plans to add to this an ultimate capacity per day of 200 tons of newsprint.

The three other proposed plants are the Prince George Pulp Company's plant, fourth largest in the province, with a capacity of 200 tons of newsprint; the Harrison Lake Lumber and Pulp Company at Harrison Lake, on the Canadian Pacific Railway east of Vancouver, 60 tons of sulphite pulp; and the Kootenay Pulp and Paper Co. at Nelson, the proposed capacity of which has not yet been announced.

The figures mentioned are based on the production capacity per day of the plants. None of them at the present time are producing up to capacity and many of them have practically suspended operations temporarily on account of the present depression. The figures merely give the tonnage the plants are capable of turning out.

CONSCIENCE STRICKEN PENITENT TELLS OF SLAUGHTERING MULE

VICTORIA, June 23.—During the confessions of penitence at the tent meetings conducted by Evangelist D. Rand Pierce, here last week one of the penitents confessed that he had been guilty of killing a mule belonging to another man in one of the Southern States, and declared that he purposed to clear his conscience by confessing to the owner, and offering to pay for it.

"SEE MY LAWYER" IS AN EXCELLENT FILM

Full of Fun and Action—Fake Intervention Gets Leading Characters Into Great Mixup.

Movie fans were given a treat last night when "See My Lawyer" the new Robertson-Cole release, starring T. Roy Barnes, was shown for the first time at the Westholme Theatre. Tonight it will be repeated and, doubtless, will attract many other patrons who were not present last night but were told about it by their friends today.

The story has to do with two young fellows who have become interested in the manufacture of a machine which is supposed to make artificial rubber. They float bonds and the money begins to come pouring in and when a test is asked for the machine, it falls down. The two boys sham insanity to keep out of jail and there is a fine mix-up. Several logical developments which are brimful of clean-cut fun finally straighten matters out.

Anybody who wants to enjoy about a thousand good, wholesome laughs should see this super-special comedy-drama.

ELKS AND LADIES OF ROYAL PURPLE MET AT ST. REGIS LAST NIGHT

There was a pleasant gathering of Elks and Ladies of the Royal Purple at the St. Regis Cafe last evening. As is the custom after initiation nights, the Elks met together at a dinner party to welcome the new members. The Ladies of the Royal Purple were also gathered at the cafe and, hearing sounds of music and merriment upstairs, they made an onslaught on the brothers in mass formation. An armistice was soon arranged and a delightful hour or so was spent together.

ROLL UP STOCKINGS OR GO BACK HOME

BRIDGEBURG, June 22.—Folks at Crystal Beach, the nearby summer resort, which has a population of 10,000 during the summer months, will not be tolerated this year.

Magistrate Clark, during the week-end, gave six young Buffalo girls a fatherly talking to and sent them home because they persisted in swinging on park swings with rolled-down stockings. Chief Scott of Crystal Beach placed them under arrest.

"Go home to your mothers and learn to dress properly," was the magistrate's final warning.
