BRINGING UP FATHER

SPORT

There does not seem to be much enthusiasm displayed in athletic circles in connection with the series of indoor baseball games that it has been proposed to hold before the outdoor ball season actually commences. It looks like indoor baseball has progressed little beyond the proposing stage, which is regrettable for it will be a month yet before the outdoor season is under way and considerable interest would probably be taken if the games were put on. It is true that a few of the boys have been practicing in the Exhibition Hall, but what everybody wants to see is a few real games while the hall is idle now with no regular games of any kind scheduled. The Sons of Canada and Elks could easily field teams and it is possible the Gallies and "Old Timers" might also enter.

DEATH YESTERDAY OF CARL ZIEMANN

Well Known Citizen Passed Away Last Evening at Home of Daughter.

The death occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Moxley, Fraser Street, of Carl Ziemann of Cedarvale. Mr. Ziemann was taken ill at his home and was brought here by his daughter, Mrs. Moxley, on the last incoming train and died last night about ten o'clock.

The late Mr. Ziemann has lived in this province about three years, having come here from Ottawa. He was 74 years of age and leaves five children, three sons and two daughters. William and Hermann live at Ottawa, and Frank makes his home here. Both daughters are married. They are Mrs. W. D. Moxley of this city and Mrs. Baby of Smithers.

Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers.

Ten years ago Prince Rupert athletes were making plans for the first basketball game ever played in the city. The two contending teams were from the Roller Skating Ring and the Kaien Island Club. The latter team comprised H. Miller, J. Angelo, R. Neill, Mason Ramsay and Jarvis McLeod, and the substitute list included J. McLeod, Harrison Rogers, W. Sherraton and W. McFarlane. Leo Waugh, captain and manager of the Kaien Island Club athletes, arranged the match and Ray Bower was the referee.

The Man in the Moon SAYS-

ONE of the most annoying creatures is the girl who would like to sing, but forgot to bring her music.

WHEN the people who are keen on being class conscious succeed in socializing industries, what will they do with the bootleggers?

ARCHERY is a lost art in the west, but people still like to shoot a shaft at the press. It is the more modern type of sport.

AT some of the homes you visit, you wish they would cut the pie into two pieces only and at some social events you wish it had been cut into twenty.

THE men who do things usually do it quietly, unless it is playing in a brass band.

MOST men are chivalrous, but they hate to give way to their wives when it is a question of reading the paper first.

WHAT law is it that a man breaks who goes around all the time with an empty flask on his hip?

EVEN brownups would like to go to school if they were given gold marks for good conduct.

A. M. Manson, M.P.P., had to leave the speaker's chair in order to speak. That seems similar to leaving the dining table in order to eat.

VANDERHOOF

Three hundred and ten miles were patrolled by the Vanderhoof provincial police during February and the total revenue collected was $253.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Walton, of Red Deer, have arrived to take up farming at Fort Fraser. They brought with them twelve head of horses, two cows, fifty goats and one hundred sheep.

Mrs. A. J. Richards entertained the social card club at the Vanderhoof Hotel last Tuesday evening.

Sergeant McLeod, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and Inspector Parsons, of the provincial police, visited this district last week.

J. B. Daniell, editor of the Prince George Citizen, paid a visit to Vanderhoof last week.
