JACK'S CIGAR STORE HAS BEEN PURCHASED BY VANCOUVER FIRM

Paul Alvazoff and Jack Johns Sell Out to D. J. Elmer Co.—Renamed "The Grotto."

Jack's Cigar Store, on Third Avenue near Sixth Street, has been sold by Jack Johns and Paul Alvazoff to D. J. Elmer & Co., wholesale and retail tobacconists of Vancouver, who take the store over from October 1. F. W. Crawford of the Vancouver store and Bert Morgan arrived from the south last week in connection with the deal, and the latter will take over the active management of the store in conjunction with W. E. Willisroff. Mr. Crawford, who is well known in the north and was formerly editor of the Fort George Herald, will return south tomorrow night on the Camosun. The store will be renamed "The Grotto."

COHAN PLAY TO BE PUT ON TONIGHT AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Charles Ray's version of "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," the George M. Cohan classic which he has adapted to the screen, is being kept close to the original form which had such tremendous success during the years of its stage vogue. The wide popularity of the original Cohan play and the star's recognition of its value in the form known to a vast public, has convinced its producers that the biggest success would attend a screen version following closely the lines of the popular stage piece. "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," is the first of the star's new productions to be presented by Arthur S. Kane. It will be shown at the Westholme tonight.

The sponsors of Mr. Ray's initial picture stressed the point that a too greatly altered photoplay adaptation of the Cohan piece was contrary to the country-wide value of this well-known comedy-drama.

The needs of screen adaptation are very often sufficient excuse for radical changes in the form and story of photoplay vehicles. In spite of the general criticism that meets some film versions of well-known stories, the fact remains that in order to attain the greatest perfection in the art of the cinema, screen possibilities must take precedence over the desire to retain the vehicle's perfection in play or story form.

GREW ARMS AND LEGS AND FLED FROM POLICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Pedestrians passing the corner of Delancey street and the Bowery today missed the poor legless, armless man who had solicited alms there with a placard around his neck, announcing that he was a "cripple of the World war."

The legless and armless mendicant was captured by Patrolman O'Sullivan yesterday after an exciting chase and, under the alias of Jellyfish Maxwell, is doing 30 days on Blackwell's Island.

O'Sullivan, had merely intended to rescue the beggar from what appeared a perilous position on the curb, but at his approach Jellyfish, a confectionist, entangled his legs and arms and fled.

Mrs. Jack Knight sailed last night by the Prince George for Vancouver.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

A HAPPY marriage is a beautiful dream because people go into it with their eyes shut.

THERE may be nothing humorous about a man's whiskers, but Jimmie says they tickle her so.

"THE very latest thing out," said a married woman in discussing fashions with a neighbor, "is my husband."

THE telegraph says there is chicken in New York. Surely we did not have to be told that. Broadway is said to have more to the square yard than any other place in the world.

NOW that the preliminaries in the big league matches are over let us all buy ring side seats and get a close up of the players.

THERE will not be much interest taken in the forthcoming world series of baseball games unless it is assured that there will be some scandals afterwards.

TEX Rickard refused to pay the guarantee to one of the boxers recently but there was no report sent out of his having returned the patrons their entrance fees.

THERE has been rough weather in Prince Rupert lately but for a real Liberal Gale try Vancouver.

THERE was a terrific fifty-mile hurricane down in New York and Montreal last week and in Prince Rupert there was a bit of a seventy-mile breeze about the same time.

INSTRUMENTS STOLEN FROM FLYING MACHINE

Aviator Prest Preparing to Take Polar Bear South on Thursday Night.

C. O. Prest, aviator and owner of the biplane Polar Bear, is today moving the wreck of his ship from the Aeropolis grounds to the Grand Trunk Pacific wharf preparatory to shipping it south. He expects to get away with it on the Prince Rupert Thursday night. Mr. Prest reports that the day after the wreck several instruments running in value to about $400 were ripped off and stolen from the machine.

MORE SALMON ON NAAS BUT POORER QUALITY, SAYS MR. DONALDSON

Mr. and Mrs. H. Donaldson of Naas Harbor Cannery left for the south on Saturday on the C. P. R. steamer. Mr. Donaldson says the catch of salmon was larger this year but the quality was not as good. Only 2000 cases of sockeyes were packed while last year they put up 3000 cases. The total catch at the cannery this year was 12,300 as against 7,000 last year.

Mrs. Wellington Tried Them All

This letter comes from a little town in Alberta. She says that for about five years she had no special brand of milk. She would try one, then another, but none quite satisfied her. Her grocer said he would get Pacific Milk. She tried two tins, then four. It seemed to be right for every purpose. She buys a case a month of Pacific now.
