FOOTBALL TEAM GIVEN SMOKER

Great War Veterans-Mad Highly Successful-Affair in Rooms Saturday Night.

The smoker given on Saturday night by the Great War Veterans Association in honor of the football club was an unqualified success in every respect. The club rooms were crowded and there were over 200 in attendance. An excellent program was rendered and refreshments were plentiful.

J. H. Kelly, president, was chairman and in opening the evening's affair, made an address stating that the football club although it had not won the championship, had not disgraced itself. It had come second with three other clubs. Mr. Kelly also announced that the association would be putting on smokers monthly throughout the winter.

Among the musical numbers were songs by Alex Brand, William Westwood, R. Gay, W. Murray, Bill Baker, R. James and W. Wisby. W. H. Waldorf gave an exhibition of hypnotism putting his subjects to sleep and having them do stunts. The jazz band, organized by W. H. Derry, provided splendid entertainment. Jack Stewart, who has been a valuable back on the team this season, gave step dances. It was announced that Mr. Stewart would be leaving shortly for the south to play with the Lady Smith team in the Vancouver Island League. He will be missed both as a player and as an entertainer.

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of J. Trinder, Frank Haugh, Joe Fleming and Jack Plant. The gathering dispersed shortly after midnight.

B. C. SPORTS DEPLORE "FATTY'S" POSTPONED VISIT TO VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Oct. 3.—Lamentations are arising from the sportive element of Vancouver who expected that "Fatty" Arbuckle would spend a month in these parts. It has just become known that the corpulent comedian was really on his way to Vancouver to spend a festive few weeks when he landed in police toils in connection with the death of an actress in San Francisco. It now develops that Arbuckle had resigned a suite for himself and entourage in a large local hotel. Arbuckle has never visited Vancouver, but announced his intention of coming here for a "good time," according to reports from California. The raucous formed the principal attraction, while reader facilities for acquiring liquor proved another.

Fred Stark returned by the Princess Alice on Saturday afternoon from a trip north.

The New York Giants have won five pennants in the National League including and since 1905 but they have been victorious in only one world series play. McGraw won the world's title with his team in 1905 against the Philadelphia Athletics and although he has had greater organizations since, the American League champions overcame them. The series of 1905 consisted of five shutout games, of which the Giants won four. Christy Matheson turned in three of the victories. Only 91,723 persons saw all of the five games and gate receipts were but a mite over $68,000 but it was a series that will stand as one of the greatest in world series' baseball history. New York won the first game three to nil and was tutored back by the same score in the second contest. They won the third line to nil, the fourth, one to nil, and the fifth, five to nil. In 1911 the Giants again met the Athletics in the series and were defeated. They won the opening game, played on their home lot, by a score of 2 to 1, and lost the second, played at Philadelphia, by 3 to 1. The third game went eleven innings and was won by the Athletics 3 to 2. The Athletics won the fourth game four to two but New York made a great effort and won the fifth, at ten innings by 4 to 3. The Athletics pounded out enough hits to make 13 runs in the deciding game and New York faltered but twice. Many believed the Giants should have won from the Boston Red Sox in 1912, but the luck favored the Bostonians and they were acclaimed world's champions after eight games had been played, one a tie in eleven innings and the final, which won 3 to 2, in ten innings. Boston won the opener, 4 to 3, and the second game was a 6 to 6 tie. New York won the third, 2 to 1. Boston won the next two, 3 to 1 and 2 to 1 respectively. New York won the sixth and seventh, 5 to 2 and 11 to 4. The result of the eighth game has already been mentioned. For the third time the Giants were pitted against the Athletics in a world's series in 1913 and New York took but one game of the five. They won the second game, 30 to 0 in ten innings,

The Athletics won the first, 6 to 4; the third, 8 to 7; the fourth, 6 to 5, and the fifth, 3 to 1. The Giants met the Chicago White Sox in the series of 1917, and after losing the first two games, 2 to 1 and 7 to 2, won the third and fourth by shut-outs, 2 to 0 and 5 to 0. The White Sox won the fifth and sixth, 8 to 5 and 4 to 2. Advertise in the Daily News.
