The Man in the Moon SAYS—

"MAMMA, are all Elks Niggers?" was asked by a tiny maiden at the minstrel show Wednesday night.

THE next time a man asks to borrow a couple of bones, refer him to the Elks' Minstrels.

THERE is some discussion as to who was the best singer at the Elks' show, but there is no difference of opinion as to who was the funniest. Humor is largely a matter of mouth.

THE editor says he has been asked to settle a bet as to the age of some of the jokes he heard at the Elks' Minstrel show. He says they were wearing beads when he was a boy so he puts it up to me. I give it up.

A MAN who is too raw should be roasted.

WOMEN are good drivers. They can drive bargains and now and then you will find one that will drive the old man crazy.

THE villain in some of the movie plots is the man who wrote the scenario.

WHEN you call a bluff it is not always wise to print the answer in a respectable newspaper.

IT is reported that a number of citizens have been seen reclining on the vacant lots in the city, doubtless with their ears to the ground listening for a request to offer for election.

AND Congdon also ran.

ELKS WON THREE GAMES OF SERIES WITH ENGLISHMEN

In three of the billiard games of the tournament between the Elks and the Sons of England the former team were successful by a score of 600 to 411, having won all three games. These were played last night, and the remaining three will take place this afternoon or evening.

The following players met yesterday: H. F. Wearmouth (Sons of England), 150; Bert McEvoy (Elks), 800.

E. Mansell, 111; Ben Self, 200. Silversides, 153; E. Green, 200.

Got No Sleep

But now the neuritis has gone, the pain has ceased, the nervous system is restored and the writer of this letter pays a grateful tribute to the medicine which made him well.

Mr. John Woodward, P.T.O., Loran, Ont., writes:

"I give you much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's medicine, especially the Nerve Food. I was a sufferer from neuritis for several years, and tried all kinds of remedies, yet never seemed to get any better. At last my nerves and whole system seemed to give way through not being able to get any rest or sleep at night, the pain, which mostly came to take me in all parts of the limbs, felt as if it were to jerk right out of my body. At last, I decided I would get Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I did, and after taking twenty boxes I believe myself almost normal again. I also keep a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in hand, and for the past year I seem to enjoy my usual health."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c. A box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Loran & Co., Limited, Toronto.
