NORMA TALMADGE AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Talented Actress Will Appear in "Yes or No," Taking Two Characters.

Few photoplays of recent years have offered such decided contrasts as "Yes or No," the latest of best offerings of photodrama distributed by First National, in which Norma Talmadge stars. Both high and low life are shown in it, the story shifting from one to the other with startling rapidity. In the home of Margaret Vane we see the social elite trifling away their time while, a moment later, whisked by the magic of the moving-picture camera a few blocks east we encounter Minnie Berry, laboring amid squalid poverty to keep her home and babies in a manner worthy of the love of her devoted but pre-occupied husband.

Of course Miss Talmadge handles both roles. And she does it with a rare skill and charm. Both of her characterizations, are excellent, her beauty contributing much to the enjoyment of the picture. Even as Minnie Berry in gingham and with hair bedraggled, this delightful little actress is good to look upon, while in the gorgeous wardrobe she has equipped herself with for the part of Margaret Vane her beauty is irresistible. She is to be seen tonight at the Westholme.

CONSTANCE BINNEY IS SHOOTING STAR

Charming Constance Binney may well be described as a "shooting star," for she has virtually leaped into fame over night on both stage and screen. Unknown alike to theatre and picture patrons three years ago she is already one of the foremost figures in the theatrical world today. She did not arrive by "pull," but by sheer force of her personality, ability and that "infinite capacity for taking pains."

After a conventional education in a French convent school, she returned to America and having overcome her New England parents' opposition to the stage, secured a part in a Broadway musical comedy entitled "Oh, Lady, Lady." In this piece she had no speaking part whatever merely two dances. Yet so successfully did she "put across" her fresh, wholesome, unaffected personality, that the next season when the most fastidious of all actresses-playwright-producers, Rachel Crothers, was casting about in search of just the right girl to portray the role of "Penelope Penn," in her comedy, "39 East," she recalled the girl she had seen dance the season before, and sent for her.

Imagine Miss Binney's surprise at being given not only a speaking part, but the part, the leading role in the piece! "39 East" was an instantaneous Broadway success, and Miss Binney was the hit of the piece, which ran a full year in New York, and a second year in Boston and Chicago.

She is to be seen tonight at the Empress.

WESTHOLME LUNCH IS SOLD AND WILL BE BROUGHT UP TO DATE

The Westholme Lunch has changed hands and is to be renovated and brought up to date as a first class restaurant, under the name of "The Good Eats." It has been purchased by Mrs. Millard and J. C. Gavigan and will be conducted under their personal management. Part of the counter is to be removed and space made for more tables. It will cater particularly to the middle class trade of the city. Mrs. Millard came recently from Port Clements and has been employed in connection with the Kaien Lunch on Sixth Street. She is a particularly capable woman and expects to make a great improvement in the "Good Eats."

TO DEVELOP ALBERTA'S COAL RESOURCES UNDER POWERFUL SYNDICATE

EDMONTON, Aug. 1.—The development of Alberta's coal resources will be taken up soon by a powerful syndicate of British financiers, the Edmonton Board of Trade has been advised by J. Hendley Yates, who has just returned from England, where he lectured before the Royal Colonial Institute on "Canadian Natural Resources," and pleaded for their development. At the head of this group of influential capitalists recently formed with this purpose in view is Lord Morrison, former prime minister of Newfoundland. It is proposed to acquire a coal mine in this province, and to install a system for subjecting the lignite to a low temperature process, whereby the by-products will be secured and the residue transformed into briquettes. By this means, the syndicate aims to demonstrate in a practical way how profitable the process advocated by Herbert Alexander, claimed to be one of the greatest living experts on briquette making, is.
