Sport Chat

It may be judged from the results of the games between Prince Rupert and Lucerne at the week-end that the locals can expect little real baseball competition from the towns of the Interior.

This much might be said for the visitors last week; though they are probably the best bunch of baseballers in the North in relation to the size of their town.

In 1919 Prince Rupert did a lot of boasting about its fine baseball team which went through the entire season and only sustained two or three defeats.

The Prince Rupert Athletics will field the following team against the Dry Dock in the Junior Football League fixture on Tuesday evening: Frizzell, Barry, G. Mitchell, Hamilton, B. Davidson, Eastman, Hill, W. Mitchell, Mackintosh, McLeod and Lamb.
