XMAS HOLIDAYS HAVE STARTED

High School Students Disported
Themselves at Concert,
Banquet and Dance

All the school children of the city were released from their duties yesterday for the first night's Christmas holidays. There were ceremonies marking the occasion in most of the divisions of all the schools. The High School celebrated at a concert and banquet and, of course, the main attention of the public school scholars was directed towards the grand concert in the Booth Memorial School. There was also a closing function at Seal Cove.

The break-up at the High School was a thoroughly enjoyable affair and was carried out in good old Christmas style. After a strenuous week of examinations the students and teachers gave themselves up to the full enjoyment of the day.

At 2 o'clock all students assembled in the music room of the King Edward School and the festivities were opened by a speech delivered by Howard Frizzell, followed by the announcement of the program of the evening. This was splendidly arranged, each class contributing one or more items.

Class Efforts.
The Mathematics Class presented "A Branch of Promise" that was capably rendered and provoked continuous laughter. The Junior Class gave two pantomime numbers, "Cinderella" and "Bluebird." The Preliminary Class gave quite a spectacular item entitled "The Circles," by their ordinary Jazz Band. The Commercial Class put on a delightful comedy, "The Wedding" which proved quite a hit. An item which attracted considerable attention and was productive of genuine enjoyment was "The Photograph Gallery or Baby Contest." Harry Ward carried off the first prize for boys and Miss Jean McKay for girls.

At 5 o'clock all the students went to a splendid banquet which the usual feast was enjoyed. After the banquet dancing was indulged in until 11 o'clock. All went home happy and full and wishing that Christmas came a little oftener than once a year.

G. W. V. A. BAND TO GIVE CONCERT ON SUNDAY

The program for the concert to be given at the Westholme Theatre on Sunday night, starting at 8 o'clock, by the Great War Veterans' Band is as follows:
March, "United Empire."
Overture, "Sons of Erin."
Song, Mrs. Stanley Bennett.
Selection, "Brie-a-brac."
Cornet solo, R. Greenfield.
Elks Quartette.
Selection, "Reminiscences of Wales."
Waltz, "Cecile."
March, "Reliance."
"God Save the King."
Collection at the door.
