Who Will Develop Groundhog Coal?

Everyone seems to be looking to the Groundhog valley as the next part of British Columbia to be developed. It is inaccessible at present owing to the absence of transportation facilities, but if the C. P. R. should build a railway to tap the district, there seems little doubt but the mines would be opened up and there would be great development both up that valley and on the coast. It would be a great thing for British Columbia to have northern mines developed to supply the Pacific with cheap coal of good quality.

Why Not Give Prospectors a Chance?

There seems to be a very general demand, especially in the north, to have the coal reserve removed in order that prospectors may have a chance to stake coal lands and do enough development to prove the fields. At present the whole country is tied up in that respect.

The agitation against the former government for alienating all the timber and farm lands of the province has had the effect of making them extremely careful in regard to coal lands. A blanket reserve has been placed on all coal lands for several years with the result that prospectors have ceased looking for coal. In view of the high price of fuel and the desirability of developing mines that may not have been discovered yet, it is worth while considering whether the time may not be opportune for making a change and giving prospectors a chance once more to look for coal lands. With the reserve on light we shall have no new finds and little development.

It seems to us that there should be some way of preventing indiscriminate tying up of coal lands by changing the tenure instead of by excluding all development. The same applies to oil. While doubtless it is desirable to protect the interest of the province as a whole, a source of considerable income is cut off by withholding the lands from prospectors.

New York Again For Financing.

During the war the old custom of dealing with New York in the matter of financing was discontinued and loans were floated at home. Large sums were raised and that without extraordinary expenditures. The advertising campaign cost no more than the ordinary commissions paid to dealers for floating the bond issues. Some of these issues mature next year. The five year bonds have come to the end of their time. We suggest that those who wish to hold their bonds instead of redeeming them shall be given an extension of time. Most of the people holding short term Victory bonds do not want the money and would be glad to keep their bonds instead of having them redeemed.

Another possibility is that the Canadian people might again be asked to take up a loan, instead of placing it all in New York. If the bonds look good to people in the United States they ought to look good in this country. The people would be the richer for holding securities which bring them regular interest payments.

HAD RHEUMATISM FOR FIVE YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON

P. O. Box 123, Parrsboro, N. S.

"I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance. I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since.

Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me."

PREPARING FOR IRISH ELECTION

Nine of 19 Sinn Fein Candidates are in Jail and Others on Run

BELFAST, May 13.—Selection of Ulster Unionist candidates for the election May 24, has been practically completed and party leaders are centering attention on the campaign.

The nominees represent practically all classes of the community—labor, professional, manufacturing and farming elements. The labor men, however, are drawn from the Unionist ranks and do not include socialists and members of the Independent Labor Party, who are accused of being allied with Bolshevism and the Sinn Fein.

Two Women

Two women have been designated to make the race for the Unionist forces. They are Mrs. R. P. S. Chichester of Moyola Park, who will contest for the County and City of Derry, and Mrs. R. J. McMorris of Belfast.

Many names prominent in the civic and political life of Belfast and Ulster do not appear in the list of candidates as announced, but there is yet opportunity for their selection to the senate when the members of this body are named later by the lower house.

Number of Members

Ulster is entitled to 47 members in the lower house, divided as follows: Belfast, 16; County Down, eight; County Antrim, seven; County Armagh, four; County and City of Derry, five; Counties Tyrone, Fermanagh, three; Queen's University, four.

Of the 19 Sinn Fein candidates for Ulster, nine are at present in jail and at least half the remainder are "on the run."

The list includes A. J. B. Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein now in prison, and Eamonn de Valera, President of the Irish Republic.

FEATURE OF CONCERT HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Miss Mary Izard and Mrs. Dalby Morkill to Play Mendelssohn's Concerto.

A notable feature of tomorrow evening's concert program will be the presentation of the First Movement of the Mendelssohn Concerto in E Minor, originally written for violin and orchestra which will be played by Miss Mary Izard, violinist, and Mrs. Dalby Morkill, pianist, and this number alone should draw all lovers of music to the concert.

This concerto is a big work, which is included in the repertoire of all the leading violinists of the day.

It is interesting, melodious, and of great beauty, and its technical difficulties are such as call for considerable skill and musicianship in the rendering. It has never before been presented to a Prince Rupert audience.

A grand piano has been secured for the occasion on which the orchestral part will be played.

This is only one item on a splendid program of vocal and instrumental music, and there should be a full house to hear it.

ROUSING FAREWELL GIVEN FOR VISITORS

A. Wallace, Charles Kennedy and Pipe Major Ross Sailed for South on Mary

A. Wallace, head of the Wallace Shipbuilding Co., Pipe Major Gordon Ross and Charles Kennedy, of the A. R. Williams Machinery Co., returned last night on the Princess Mary to Vancouver.

Before their departure a farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Frizzell, Seventh Street, in their honor and the following were present: George D. Tife, Wilfrid MacDonald, Chief Minty, D. Thomson, Captain McGregor and O. H. Nelson.

As the steamer pulled out an ovation was given the departing visitors and "Will Ye No Come Back Again?" was sung. Just before the party went aboard, a presentation of a $100 purse was made to Pipe Major Ross.
