VAUDEVILLE COMING WEEK

Athlon Company is Only Show Giving Condensed Versions of Big Plays

Prince Rupert will have a week's theatrical engagement beginning Monday night, when the Athlon Stock Company will appear at the Westholme Theatre. The advance notice for the attraction states that this company has played forty-three weeks at the Orpheum Theatre at Seattle; seventy-two weeks at the Strand and Lyric Theatres in Portland, Oregon; twenty-three weeks at the Princess Theatre in San Francisco; twenty-one weeks at the Columbia Theatre in Vancouver, B.C.; nine weeks at the Hippodrome Theatre in Spokane and four weeks at the Strand Theatre in Stockton, Cal., and many others.

The Only One
The Athlon Stock Company claims to be the only show of its kind in the world, inasmuch as they are presenting condensed versions of the very best plays—some of them well known English comedies—something never before attempted by any organization. In other words, instead of paying two or three dollars to

MISS EFFIE JOHNSON
Leading lady of the Athlon Stock Company, which opens at the Westholme Theatre next Monday, May 16, in the funniest comedy ever written, "Are You a Mason?"

witness a well known play, and sitting through three long hours to see it, the Athlon Stock Company, gives you the same play, in a condensed form, with all the plot, scenes and situations, and does two entirely different styles of plays, a big vaudeville act and six reels of the latest features pictures on each program, and changes the program completely every other night.

Or High Order
This is practically on the same lines as the higher class of Chautauqua programs only more diversified and of a higher order. Only the highest class of plays obtainable are presented, and every attention is paid to detail, not only with the plays, but with the vaudeville, which is of a very high order.

The Castle
Miss Effie Johnson, known from coast to coast as the girl with the "Million Dollar Personality" and as one of the cleverest actresses the stage has produced, heads this versatile company. The company also numbers among its members such well known players as Clifford Lancaster, formerly featured comedian with some of the best stock companies in the country, prominent among which are the Baker Stock Company in Portland, Oregon, and the Woodward Theatre in Spokane, Washington; Neil McKinnon, who was featured in Rex Beach's big play, "The Spoilers"; Robt. Athlon, who appeared with Blanche Bates in "The Darling of the Gods" at the Capitol Theatre in New York, under the direction and management of the world famous David Belasco, and Dorothy Randall, a clever actress, whose wonderful singing voice has earned her the name of "The Western Nightingale."

Money's Worth
The motto of this famous company is, "Your Money's Worth or Your Money Back." Two very fine plays have been selected for the opening night's program, "Are You a Mason?" and "Wm. A. Brady's celebrated drama of the underworld, "As Ye Sow." "Are You a Mason" needs no introduction, as it is known as the funniest of all the English comedies and keeps the most blasé audience in continued good humor.

THREE C.P.R. BOATS CAME IN LAST NIGHT

Ena and Beatrice from South and Mary Southbound from Alaskan Ports.

Three Canadian Pacific coast steamers made this port during the night.

The Princess Ena, Capt. Giff, arrived at 11:30 with lumber for the Wallace shingard which she is unloading at the dry dock today.

The Princess Mary, Capt. Slater, southbound from Alaskan ports, arrived at 12:15 and sailed at 1:30 with a full passenger list.

The Princess Beatrice, Captain W. J. Boyce, arrived at 4 o'clock this morning for the first time since her wreck last February at Lasqueti Island. She had a few passengers and a heavy cargo, including 100 tons of cement for the new coast house. The Beatrice has been on the west coast of Vancouver Island run for a fortnight and next week will again be replaced by the Tees, on the northern route. She sails on the return south at 6 o'clock this evening.
