Three Park Ave. Cottages Will Be Moved Over Street

After some discussion on the matter, the city council last night decided to accept an offer from C. K. Ytreberg, acting as agent for A. Andreasson, of $195, $10 down and the balance in payments of $10 monthly, for lots 36 and 37, block 27, section 1. The intention is to move three cottages from their present site across Park Avenue to the new lots.

While some of the members of the council felt that a larger down payment than $10 might be desirable, the view finally prevailed that considerable expenditure would be involved in moving and repairing the cottages and it was decided to accept the offer.

There is an amount of $200 standing against the two lots.

APPRECIATES PAT ON BACK

Editor, Daily News:—

On behalf of the Moose Legion Band and Moose Legion, I wish to thank you very much for your kind words of appreciation in your editorial of last Saturday. It means a lot to me members of the Loyal Order of Moose to know that our efforts to be of some use in our community are appreciated. As sponsors of the Band we of the Moose Legion feel that our efforts, without the splendid co-operation of the Bandmaster and band members, would have been useless. The success of the band is entirely due to the untiring efforts of the Bandmaster, R. Greenfield, who has proven himself a musician of undoubted ability and deserves all the praise for the way in which the band performs.

On behalf of the band members and members of the Moose Legion, I wish to publicly thank and congratulate Mr. Greenfield for the successful way in which he has trained and conducted our band. During the coming fall and winter it is our intention to put on a series of band concerts, trusting that the public will co-operate with us in our endeavor to help along the musical education of our boys and provide a treat for music lovers.

Again thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the little pat on the back and also for publishing this.

B. J. BACON.

CITY CLUB IS WINNER

Railway Tennis Fans Hosts to Up Town Players Sunday

The Prince Rupert Tennis Club players were Sunday afternoon the guests of the Canadian National Railway Recreation Club on their courts at the station. Match play started at 2:00 o'clock after a morning of much uncertainty and several varieties of weather and, although the fearful condition of the weather glands continued to cause some concern all afternoon, the tournament proved a success and practically all of the scheduled events were carried to completion before the final evening spray drove the players from the courts.

The results show that the city club dominated the day although the bald scores do not always reflect the close games that occurred.

Results of the Play

Owing to the delayed start all sets were limited to the score in games of 4-3, the best two out of three sets being required to win. Nine events were won by the visitors and four by the home club, three being left unplayed. In the mixed doubles W. H. Tobey and Miss Bee Berner won from H. Heilbroner and Miss B. Thompson, 4-3, 4-2; W. B. Tobey and Mrs. F. S. Walton won from Col. and Mrs. J. W. Nicholls, 2-4, 4-1, 4-1; W. N. Currie and Miss Elsie Davis won from C. J. Norrington and Miss Joyce Edgumbe, 4-3, 4-2; R. Johnston and Mrs. C. Taylor won from W. R. McAfee and Mrs. J. Douglas, 4-3, 2-4, 4-2; F. M. Davis and Mrs. F. A. Rogers lost to W. Stamford and Mrs. S. P. McMordie, 3-4, 4-3, 3-4; J. H. Horton and Mrs. W. N. Currie lost to Col. S. P. McMordie and Mrs. G. P. Tinker, 2-4, 3-4; W. P. McIntosh and Mrs. J. H. Horton lost to O. Young and Mrs. S. Jabour, 3-4, 4-2, 4-3.

In the ladies' doubles Mrs. W. Brass and Miss O. VanCooten lost to Miss Joyce Edgumbe and Miss Palmer, 1-4, 1-4; Mrs. J. H. Horton and Mrs. F. S. Walton lost to Miss Joyce Edgumbe and Miss Palmer, 2-4, 0-4; Miss Bee Berner and Miss Elsie Davis lost to Miss B. Thompson and Mrs. S. Jabour, 4-3, 4-2; while the set of Mrs. W. N. Currie and Mrs. F. A. Rogers vs. Mrs. P. Tinker and Mrs. S. McMordie was not completed on account of rain.

In the men's doubles, the visitors won three matches, W. Stamford and C. J. Norrington winning from J. H. Horton and W. P. McIntosh, 4-1, 4-1; R. Young and Bamford from W. B. and R. Tobey, 4-3, 4-2; L. Hinton and S. Darton from R. Johnston and J. A. Teng, 2-4, 2-4.

Two events in the men's doubles were not played on account of rain viz., W. H. Tobey and F. M. Davis vs. Col. S. P. McMordie and Joslin and W. N. Currie and Ralph Johnston vs. O. Young and J. A. Douglas. One or two other events were also called off owing to the necessity for players departing due to delay on account of weather conditions and the late start but, on the whole, the affair was considered quite a pleasant get-together party of the two tennis clubs.

BIG BREAK IN STOCKS

Securities Dropped Sharply on New York Exchange Monday—All Issues Show Falling-Off

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Stocks and bonds broke sharply on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday, various issues dropping an average of five points. Cotton crashed two cents while rails were off over two points and utilities down more than three cents.

Speaker Black Here Yesterday

Hon. George Black, Speaker of the Canadian House of Commons and Member for the Yukon, who has been spending the summer in his constituency in the north, and Mrs. Black were passengers aboard the Princess Louise yesterday bound for Vancouver. They will remain in Vancouver until the opening of the session of Parliament at Ottawa in the fall.
