

For TENDER SKINS & SORE HANDS

KEEN winds make the skin harsh and rough. Lips get sore; hands crack and chafe; faces itch and smart and "break out" into those blotchy eruptions known as winter eczema.

To restore the skin to a clear, healthy flexibility there's nothing like Zam-Buk. Rub it into the face, arms and wrists at night—let it work while you sleep.

Zam-Buk's refined herbal essences soak into, and purify the tissues. They soothe irritation and smarting pain; heal raw sore surfaces and prevent "infection" of the broken skin.

Cold-creams with no medicinal value, or coarse fatty ointments, are powerless to give you the clear healthy skin you desire. You need Zam-Buk, the most soothing and successful skin remedy ever discovered.

Also a wonderful healer for Burns, Scalds, Cuts and all Sores. Wounds and injuries. 7¢ per box or direct from Zam-Buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto. Trial sample 1¢ stamp.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

ELECTION to the British Parliament in the Sinn Fein interests does not seem to get anywhere except to jail.

THERE will be a Dominion election if the financial powers behind Hon. Arthur Meighen lift the bars and say "Go."

JUST wait until British Columbia gets into her stride. Then the effete east will hear that we are here.

THE day is not far distant when instead of Ontario and Quebec controlling the destinies of the Dominion, it will be the great west that will turn the scale in all elections.

WHAT with Quebec raising its own population and Western Canada importing it, the Maritime provinces will have to step lively or they will soon be left with hardly any representation.

CHINESE WOMEN ARE FORBIDDEN TO DRESS IN NEWER STYLES

VANCOUVER, Jan. 13.—The craving for modern dress has hit China so forcibly that the police have decided to do something about it, according to the North China Mail which has just reached here. It records that the chief of police of Shanghai has issued an edict against extravagant styles now worn by Chinese women. It warns the women against aping foreign styles with the display of bare arms and silken ankles.

"Women's wearing apparel," says the edict, "is mostly too short permitting exposure of arms and ankles. Some of the clothing is an imitation of foreign styles, making the wearer neither foreign nor Chinese. The wearers are devoid of shame and frequent public streets without embarrassment. In future all such women will be arrested and fined."

CURIOUS TOY DOGS

Mechanical Affairs that Turn Somersaults and Jump About

The London Times the day before Christmas said:

"In some streets there is practically a continuous row of hawkers in the gutter offering for sale a toy which they described as 'the mechanical dog.' This is made in the form of a little dog, and—according to its vendors—it can move apparently by its own volition. There is a curious arrangement of springs inside the toy, by means of which, when placed on the pavement, it can jump in the air, turn somersaults and do various other unexpected things. As a result every few yards in a crowded thoroughfare there is a toy dog turning somersaults under the feet of the passers by. If a man happens to tread on one the hawker is very indignant, but the dog is soon turning somersaults again. If, on the other hand, a woman happens to stumble over one the hawker is more than indignant. Very often women are stopped. It is pointed out to them that they have ruined part of a poor man's stock, and sooner than create a scene many of them purchase the toy on which they had trodden."
