Sport Chat

Ten years ago this winter lively games of indoor baseball were played in Prince Rupert but of latter years the sport has died down until it is now practically unknown here. There are lots of boys in the city who should be able to play the game and there seems no reason why there should not be a league formed this winter. In the old days there was more enthusiasm for this game than there ever was for basketball in later years and this was among fans as well as players. It offers great exercise and possibly many who do not play basketball would be able to engage in this sport. All that is necessary is a few enthusiasts to get it going again and bring it back to its old popularity.

More than 178,000 persons paid their way to see the world's series last year between the Brooklyn Nationals and Cleveland Americans, in which the latter team won five games to two. The official gross receipts were $564,800 and they were distributed as follows: Contest-ing players' share, $161,162.06; purse for Cleveland (27 men), $96,697.24; purse for Brooklyn (29 men), $64,164.82; each Cleveland player, $4,168; each Brooklyn player, $2,419; purse for second place teams (about 52 men), $27,431; purse for third place teams (about 55 men), $21,488.28; each second place player, $685.89; each third place player, $400; Cleveland club's share, $73,359.23; Brooklyn club's share, $73,359.31; American League treasury, $73, 359.32; National League treasury, $73,359.31; National Commission's share, $56,480.

It is beginning to look as if the two New York teams, Giants and Yankees, are going to win the pennants in their respective leagues and will take part in the big national party of the year, the World's Series. The Yankees yesterday had fifteen points over the Cleveland Indians and the Giants, twenty-five over the Pittsburgh Pirates. It is also together unlikely that either of these leads will be overcome before the end of the week when the season ends although surer baseball "dope" has been known to have been upset before. Many would have liked to have seen the Indians, the present world's champions, in the finals but the odds are long against them now.

If the New York Yankees get into the World's Series, the presence of "Babe" Ruth, home run king, will be a great attraction and his big hits may win the world's championship. All through the season, it has been recognized that, as a game getter, he has been worth any other three men on the team. It will not be the first time that Bambino has been in a World's Series. In 1918 he pitched the Boston Red Sox to two victories over the Chicago Cubs. "Babe" will be as potential a factor this year as he was then.

CAREFUL SCRUTINY OF
ALL CIVIC CHARITIESEdmonton Proposes Formation of Bureau to Give Schemes
Once Over.

EDMONTON, Sept. 28.—Formation of a civic charities bureau states Mayor Duggan, will be undertaken in the near future.
The idea is that it should consist of the chairman of the finance committee, the city comptroller and the city commissioners, and the object of its existence would be to investigate all appeals made to the public for funds where the city is asked to lend its countenance or where the city is directly asked for aid.
This would include all institutions to whom grants are made by the city, such things as applications for tag days, special campaigns, etc.

The city council will be asked to approve of the scheme and to incorporate their approval in a bylaw under which the bureau will act.
The mayor remarked that there is considerable need in the city for an institution of the kind. Many of the appeals made will not stand investigation, and in certain campaigns carried out for funds, the cost of running the campaign has taken the greater portion of the money collected. In addition the public has been prejudiced against institutions by the fact of such appeals being made.

KETCHIKAN, Sept. 28.—The

ment of the measure.
A rather humorous case back was referred by the City Council.
On scanning the list of names appended to the protest it was discovered that a number of the people who had signed had not yet been assessed. Immediately the city clerk was instructed to collect from them.
