DAILY EDITION

Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1921.

Will Be Defeated
by His Friends.

Colonel Peck and his supporters are apparently ready to countenance anything that they think will bolster up their lost cause. We regret having to defile the pages of The Daily News with such language, but it seems necessary to let our readers see the kind of material that is being used. This is a sample of the sort of thing that is being published apparently without protest from the Peck campaign committee:

"Who are those who shout so loudly against the independent sentiment? Comb them with a fine tooth comb and see if they are not either sucking after some patronage, some job, some reward, some timber limits, some grab, or of a calibre unable to get anywhere except through some rotten party trickery. Hence their hypocritical chatter concerning some grand old party or some grand old leader, who, too frequently, like themselves, don't give a tinker's cuss for the welfare of the whole people. Men like Colonel Peck, however, don't have to resort to party stunt or lash in order to make headway in the world in a straightforward manner."

That was yesterday's editorial in the independent organ. Do the people of Skeena electoral district believe that it is necessary to try to blacken the characters of opponents and resort to dirty language such as that used in order to win this election? If that sort of thing is necessary, The Daily News will not be a party to it. We believe that Colonel Peck is an honorable man and that his supporters are honorable men. It is our belief that they are actuated by the highest motives, even though they are making a mistake. We believe that the supporters of Colonel Peck are just as good a lot of men and women, no better and no worse than those who are supporting Fred Stork. We differ in our views, but we call ourselves Liberals refuse to resort to disreputable methods in order to try to win. We do not think that the Conservative supporters of Colonel Peck are grafters, tricksters or even hypocrites. We have not found them so. They are putting up the best fight they know how for their candidate and we are doing the same for Fred Stork. It is to be hoped that in order to clear themselves from any complicity in the use of gutter language they will publicly disown any connection with or authority for the editorial here quoted and others which have been published similar to it. The people of this constituency are not savages and do not need to be influenced by such methods. If Colonel Peck is beaten, as we believe he will be, we should like to see him go down to defeat with honor and not tainted by the dirt of some of his supporters.

Should Nation
Take Over P. G. E.?

Should the nation take over the P. G. E. instead of leaving it a burden on the province? Both Dominion and Provincial governments are ours and we are the ones who pay the taxes to keep up either. Railways generally are either owned or controlled by the Dominion and not by the provinces.

A few years ago the McBride Government was not satisfied with the speed in railway building carried on by the Dominion. They jumped into the game themselves and let contracts for the construction of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway from Squamish to Prince George, after having received the endorsement of the people for their action. We all see now that it was foolish, but the people themselves were to blame. As it is today the province is saddled with the great debt for this railway so that it handicaps the Provincial Government in the matter of finances. Taxes are high and may go even higher. We must pay our debts.

The railway to Prince George is now practically finished and the next problem is, what shall we do with it? If we attempt to operate it, as is being done today with a part of the line, we are bound to lose an immense lot of money. There are but two alternatives. One is to join up with the C. P. R. at Ashcroft and let them operate it as a branch, and the other to join up at the same place with the Canadian National and have them operate it. The road is practically built and must be operated.

When M. A. Macdonald was in the city recently he advocated that the Canadian National take it over and make it a part of the Canadian National system. That would relieve the province of the necessity of carrying a heavy burden and the burden would then be carried instead by the whole people of Canada, where it belongs. The railway is not an Oliver institution. It is a McBride institution, conceived and carried on in its initial stages, when he was supported by W. J. Bowser, the present Conservative leader. We have the railway and what we want to do now is to dispose of it that it will be the least possible burden to the few people of this province. If that can be done it will certainly be good business for us who have to pay the taxes here.

Census Returns and Election.

Already the census returns are complete for Alberta, Manitoba, Maritime Provinces and a good deal of Quebec. These have been published. Others could have been published if there had been a desire to get them out. The Canadian Government is in a position to know now what the population of the different provinces is. In spite of that an election is forced on us just on the eve of the publishing of the census returns without any redistribution. It will be noticed that Alberta made a gain of 55 per cent. in population in the ten years, and yet that province must go for many years without a commensurate representation. We are not yet told what British Columbia's gain is, but we know it is very large. We, too, must be under-represented at Ottawa for years. Even Colonel Peck admits that it is wrong. The chief wrong was in Colonel Peck and others supporting the Government in its desire to hang on to power after its mandate had expired. Pledges given at the last election were broken in order that the Government might not have to face an angry electorate.

The Man in the Moon
SAYS—

THAT political agnostic does not my goat.

ELECTION day is coming and we'll all go out to vote. We'll send Fred Stork to Ottawa. He will not be the goat.

IT'S better to work for Fred Stork's election than to hope for it.

APPARENTLY the only person who thinks girls wear sufficient clothing is the person who pays for them.

IF people acted according to their lights, what about those who went skating last night? Something more was needed. With the coming of the Liberals a new element was instilled into the country.

APPARENTLY the editor would like to have Colonel Peck use some gasoline to clean off the slime of some of his supporters.

"INJURED on my trip?" No, siree, I was injured on my both hips. It happened when I sat down too vigorously."

IT seems to the ordinary observer as if there was altogether too much love and affection among the nations of the world. Since they have all agreed to the general principles for which the conference was called, we shall now expect to see some fireworks from this on.

DANCE AT TERRACE

Mr. and Mrs. George Little Entertain Number of Friends on Saturday.

A very enjoyable dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Little on Saturday evening, November 19 from 8:30 until 12. The feature of the evening was the excellent music provided by Mrs. Von Hees at the piano and Roy Newton on the saxophone. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight, after which several musical numbers were well rendered by Mrs. E. E. Chandler, Mrs. Von Hees and Miss Etanda Marsh. B. O. Andrews presided at the punch bowl.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. George Dover, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lazelle, Mr. and Mrs. K. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Von Hees, Mr. and Mrs. O. Sundal, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. A. Domaghy, Miss Etanda Marsh, Messrs. A. Sharp, A. Barker, B. O. Andrews, Wm. Donald, Mr. Gouy and Mr. Hillman.

JUST BEFORE THE EXPLOSION

Voice at the other end—is that you darling?
Gouty Pater—Er—Yes.
Voice—Oh, good! How's the old boy's gout, my pet? I mean to say, if he still has it, I'll come round tonight, but if he hasn't, we'll go out to some show.—The Passing Show.

GENERAL ODLUM' ON LIBERALISM

Tells of Some of the Things He and the Liberal Party Stand For.

Brigadier-General Victor Odum, who is running as Liberal candidate in South Vancouver, at a recent meeting made a rather notable speech from which the following statements are culled:

"I am unalterably opposed to Oriental immigration. I believe this province should be kept for ourselves."

"I believe in a selective immigration from Europe. Diseased, sub-normal immigrants are dangerous as Orientals to Canada."

"British Columbia fisheries should be controlled by British Columbians with expert knowledge of their requirements."

"I am a firm believer in the equalization of pensions."

"Errors in judgment are just as serious in national life as errors in intention."

"It is my firm conviction that the more you trust the mass of people the better they respond. The Liberal party has always stood for the widening of the basis of personal liberty."

"The Liberal party does not stand for free trade, but for modified protection. The Hon. W. S. Fielding is responsible for the tariff policy under which the Conservative party is now operating."

"The present government took over the railways at their face value as going concerns, allowing their builders to retain the wealth made in building them. Today Canada is responsible for the losses and liabilities these men should have borne."

"Prior to 1896 when the Conservatives were in power they had a protective policy but still Canadians streamed south. Something more was needed. With the coming of the Liberals a new element was instilled into the country. Canada became a wealthy and virile nation with a steady stream of agricultural immigrants from the old land. Good times resulted."

"You must populate the farms before cities can be truly prosperous. I stand for and the Liberal party is committed to a selective immigration policy for the farms."

"I am anxious to avoid any suggestion of wrong-doing in public life in Canada. I do not believe half of what I am told. I believe that many public men who have contributed to the support of powerful interests in the East have done so through ignorance."

"The tariff is not a thing for the average person to play with. I believe there should be a tariff commission appointed to thoroughly study it and act upon their findings."

"The Liberal party stands for the interests of the common people. I believe that, if they are returned, the Farmers' party will gradually merge with it, for they will see the principles for which they stand being worked out."
