THE LOYALTY PARTY.

Mr. Meighen, in addressing the citizens of Toronto at Massey Hall, made the statement that "there are men in Canada today who could save nearly half their income taxes by moving to the United States." But what is the use of moving to the United States? The experience of the Riordon Company shows that the United States Government is keen after income taxes. In three years that company was obliged to pay $328,081 cash in taxes on profits to the Government of that country. But in this country the Riordon Company is permitted to pay its income taxes by promissory notes, and the Government admits that other big companies have done the same thing. Mr. Meighen during his tour has dealt with so many subjects that he has become a little twisted. What he should have said was: "There are men in Canada today who can save all their income taxes by giving I.O.U.'s to the Government." But of course, this permit does not apply to men of small income.—Ottawa Citizen.

IT DID.

First Lawyer—Did his address to the jury carry conviction?
Second ditto—It did. His client got five years.—Boston Transcript.

MAKING HIM CAREFUL.

Lawyer—And what was the defendant doing meanwhile?
Witness—He was telling me a funny story.

Lawyer—Remember, sir, that you are under oath.

Witness—Well, anyway, he was telling me a story.—Pearson's Weekly.

PESSIMISM.

Parson about to leave the village)—Never mind, Mr. Grubbins, you'll get a better man when I've left.

Rustie—Ah, zur! Oh, I don't know about that. The last parson said the same when 'e left.—Punch.
