Peck's Record Compared with That of Fred Stork for Benefit of Electors

WANTED—A man to represent us at Ottawa. State experience and qualifications. Apply Skeena Electors. Such an advertisement presents our present Federal Election as a serious, cold-blooded business proposition.

Mr. Stork as a private citizen has according to record always behaved himself. What we are concerned with, however, is the efficiency with which he has functioned, as a community worker.

Not Established. To summarize Mr. Stork's qualifications he is without political record, and so has not established his political integrity.
