The Best Accident Insurance

—the one adopted generally in Canadian homes, is the policy of keeping Zam-Buk always handy. Zam-Buk ensures quick clean healing in cuts, burns, scalds, colds, and all injuries and skin troubles. It promptly ends pain, irritation and inflammation; it purifies the tissues, prevents blood-poison and ulceration. Its ever ready herbal character and powerful antiseptic properties make Zam-Buk the safest and best healer ever discovered.

Miss Belle Grant, Brazil Lake, N.S., says:—"Cold got into my burnt hand, and I began to fear blood-poison. I hadn't used Zam-Buk long before it took out all pain, soreness and inflammation."

Mr. Jonathan Beaton, of Delta, Alta., writes:—"With the thrashing of the last fall, many little accidents happened, cuts, bruises, frost bites, etc., for which we found nothing so good as Zam-Buk. There's nothing like it."

Children, colds, sores, winter eczema, ulcers, piles, abscesses, and skin sores and injuries generally, are safely treated with Zam-Buk. Of druggists and stores 50¢ a box, 3 for $1.35. A 1¢ stamp brings Free Trial Sample from Zam-Buk Co., Dupont Street, Toronto.

CIVILIAN CLOTHES AT THE WESTHOLME

Handsome in Uniform, Captain Disappoints in Civilian Costume.

The picture story "Civilian Clothes" at the Westholme tonight concerns an overseas captain who marries a pretty American society girl in France. She is attracted to him chiefly because he is so handsome in his uniform. Later, after she returns to America, comes news of his death. She has renewed her acquaintance with another admirer when her husband, very much alive, comes to her home. Disappointed at his unromantic appearance in civilian clothes, which show atrocious taste in their cut and color, she scolds him. The gallant ex-captain thereupon secures a job as butler in his wife's household with the avowed purpose of teaching her a lesson in democracy. The results are amusing in the extreme, and, of course, the story ends happily.

SENSATIONAL RESCUE IN MAKING PICTURE

In making the picture "From New Orleans" which shows at the Empress tonight, George Walsh says: "We were filming a picture out in Colorado," said he. "In one of the scenes the heroine falls into the river, and I am supposed to swim out and rescue her. My leading woman fell overboard all right, but we realized a moment later that it was going to be a real honest-to-goodness rescue, and not just a moving picture. The river was very high, it being in the spring, and the water rushed down with frightful force. The girl screamed for help, and I jumped in. As soon as I touched the water I realized that I was going to have some battle to get out myself, much less get her also. "However, I managed to get hold of her, although the river was carrying us both down stream at a frightful rate. I turned to help her, when my head struck a rock which was partly submerged. I lost consciousness for a moment, and when I came to the girl was some yards down the river ahead of me. I made another attempt to reach her, swimming with all my might, and at last caught up with her. We were both in a bad fix, but to make matters worse she immediately grabbed me about the neck and held on for dear life."
