POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED

A wedding of more than usual interest took place last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Gilhuly, Fifth Avenue West, when Miss Rowena Dyer, second daughter of J. E. Dyer of this city, was united in marriage to William Balagno, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Balagno, Victoria. The ceremony took place at 9:30 in the presence of about thirty assembled friends of the bride and groom, Rev. T. H. Nuttall officiating.

The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white satin and georgette with a bridal veil, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, was attended by her sister, Miss Willa Dyer, in white satin. She was given away by her father, J. E. Dyer, while Harry Astoria supported the groom.

Followed by Dance.
Following the wedding ceremony, refreshments were served and all made merry for the rest of the evening by dancing to the tune of strains of full orchestral music rendered by Sam Brail, R. Greenfield, F. W. Brown and Miss Senkler. The whole affair was voted one of the happiest in many a day.

The guests at the wedding festivities, all of whom signed the marriage certificate, included Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Self, Mr. and Mrs. J. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. T. Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, Miss Thelma Knight, Miss Annie Walker, Miss Pulmira Astori, Miss Mary Astori, Miss Georgina Hunter, Miss May Pringle, Miss Isabel Kelly, Emory Dyer, Stanley Smith, G. A. Hunter, W. F. Roberge, J. W. Woods, H. Frizell and George Mitchell.

Leave for Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Balagno left on this morning's train for Toronto where their first home will be established. Mr. Balagno having recently accepted the first chair in the Allan Theatre Orchestra in that city. The bride has lived here for some years and has become a most popular member of the younger set of the city. She was a member of the staff of the district forester's office and her departure will be a distinct loss to that office.

Mr. Balagno is well known on the coast and is recognized as one of the best violinists in the province. His home is in Victoria but he has held leading positions with orchestras in Victoria, Calgary, Prince Rupert, Anyox and other places.

The best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple.

GAMBLING AND OPIUM OPPOSED

Members of Chinese Nationalist League at Prince George Taboo Drug

PRINCE GEORGE PAPER

In spite of a painstaking effort to gather a comprehensive idea of the underlying influences which caused the opposing factions of Chinese to meet in a lively long war just off Third Avenue last Friday, the results of which have placed about twelve Chinamen in the local jail and another in hospital with a bullet through his leg, the Citizen is able to gather only a sketchy idea of the cause belli, says the Prince George Citizen.

After interviewing prominent members of the Chinese Nationalist League, which is involved with the Chee Kong Tong in this feud, it appears that the followers of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, but recently re-elected as president of China, are against opium and gambling, which this organization alleges are carried on and encouraged by the Chee Kong Tong. There is not one man, a member of the Nationalist league, according to a member of that organization, who gambles or smokes opium. Such practices are strictly taboo, and to indulge in them means expulsion, said our informant.

Band of Pilgrims

There are about 400 Chinese in this city, according to the estimate of the Nationalists, and of these there are but 70 members of the league. They raise the question as to the preponderance against them in any possible offensive and ask whether it is likely that this little band of pilgrims would "start anything" with a long mustering 250 members to grab up a bundle stick for the cause at any time day or night.

That a member of the Nationalists is acting as interpreter in the court seems to be a sore point, according to the information secured from that party. The base suggestion has been made that he favors his interpretations with a tinge of Nationalism, and this statement, given by the Nationalists themselves, is a cause for virtuous indignation.

Import Tough Guys

That the Chee Kong Tong are importing "tough guys" from Vancouver is a charge made by the Nationalists, who appear to be a little uneasy on the score of these mercenaries. They are not of the kind who seek to go down of glory, but beat up the little fellows as occasion offers. In the melee on Friday the court interpreter, a small, peaceful looking individual, was badly beaten up and he lost his gold-rimmed glasses into the bargain.

The Tong's Grievance

Down in Chinatown, whither a Citizen reporter went to interview the Chee Kong Tong, the scene was typically Oriental. In the lodge room of the tong an ornate altar stands. Before this the members take their oaths and murmur their prayers to the great god, whose image is presented. With perfect seriousness a Chinaman related how the presence of any person present at their rites was immediately detected by the guttering of the candles which flank their deity if he were an enemy.

Beside Altar

Down there, in a little room beside the altar, were related the grievances of the great Chee Kong Tong. The preamble was that all of the assault cases had come about by the ill feeling which exists between the tong and the league. This came to a head when the Nationalists recently secured the quashing of a conviction against members of the Nationalists who beat up a Tong man. The matter of patronizing the Japanese was involved and a letter was shown the Citizen reporter from the Chinese consul in Vancouver which stated that there was no boycott against Japanese goods, but that a movement was on foot to help the exploitation of "made in China" merchandise.

Grossly Insulted.

That a member of their tong has been grossly insulted by the Nationalists was related during the interview. The Chinese have a neat way of doing these things. This is by the posting of "labels" which are about the size of a sheet of notepaper. One of these

Baby's food is all important.

For 63 years better babies have been raised on—labels was produced and read. It was very libellous. Referring to the Chinaman attacked, it said in part: "Look at his appearance! He has a head like an orange and the same color! His mouth is white like the rice! He must be a mountain monkey!" and many other choice insults. This was signed in a manner which thinly disguised the name of the writer. It is only one of many such labels which have been posted to hurt members of the tong.

Their Politics.

The Nationalists are ardent supporters of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who is president of the league. The Chee Kong Tong states that the doctor used to be a member of their order. They are not in any way against him, but are only against the Manchurian, whose yoke was thrown off ten years ago.

In the cases which are before the court rising out of the long war of Friday last, both sides are mustering an array of friends and advisors from outside points. They are very much in earnest, but it all appears very trivial until the trouble ends in revolver shots, as it did on Friday of last week.

QUESTION OF LOYALTY.

Editor Daily News:
It was with mixed feelings in which pity predominated that I read in your issue of Monday a letter on the Irish executions—pity and consideration, which prevents me giving further publicity to the author by mentioning his name.

I have not kept track of the executions in Ireland and do not know to which particular batch he objects being exhibited in pictures, but it is a matter of common knowledge that persons have been executed there for having arms and ammunition in their possession and the appeal in this sentence dismissed on the claim that Ireland is in a state of war and the death penalty legal.

As regards the "loyal minority" to which your correspondent refers and which demands prestige and privilege as the regard for its loyalty, would "conditional loyalty" not be a better description of this minority? A late leader of the party, Rev. R. R. Kane, rector of the disestablished church at Tullylish, County Down, when addressing a "loyalist" gathering who were displeased at some action of the Government, announced that if the Government did not mend its manners he would "kick the crown into the Boyne." Comment is not needed.
