HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strong, Glasnevin, Sask., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

ADDRESS BY INDIAN AGENT ON HISTORY OF INDIAN TRIBES

Dealt With Subject in Three Periods: Exploration, Trading and Missionary.

There was a good attendance in the McIntyre Hall last evening to hear the interesting address given by Ald. C. C. Perry, Indian agent, "Early Days on the North Pacific." The lecture was of a historical nature and dealt with the Indians under three periods, exploration, trading and missionary.

Commencing with a brief description of Indian customs and conditions before the white men came, the story of the British and Spanish explorations and the rendezvous at Nootka Sound was told. Then came the fur trading which, Mr. Perry stated, had been over exploited with the result that it had practically been discontinued.

Up to this period the Indians had heard little of Christianity and there were hostilities between the whites and the natives and also fierce feuds between the various tribes. With the coming of the missionaries they had learned the ways of civilization and peace. Their barbaric customs had also disappeared. The ultimate destiny of the Indians would be absorption into the white race, predicted the speaker.

Following the lecture there was a lot of discussion and many questions were asked, answers for which were readily given. S. V. Cox was chairman of the meeting.

SAYS SAW DEER ON THE BALL GROUNDS

Seven were Grazing There Yesterday Morning on Arrival of Ball Players.

Earl Haynes, a recent arrival here from Nova Scotia, who was at the ball grounds early yesterday morning, says he saw seven deer grazing on the edge of the grounds about nine o'clock. As soon as they saw him they scampered off. They were around near the farther goal posts.
