TIME FOR DEEP SEA FISHING

So Declares Captain Barney Johnson at Rotary Club Today.

The guest of honor at the Rotary Club luncheon today was Captain Barney Johnson, the well known pioneer skipper and transportation man of northern waters. Captain Johnson gave the club a short and enlightening address on transportation matters connected with Oriental shipping. The speaker pointed out that now was a most favorable time to approach with the large steamship companies with the view of inducing them both in their own interests, and of those of this city, to take active steps towards sending their ships here to load part if not entire cargoes from here. Captain Johnson dwelt on the well known natural facilities that offered here, the splendid harbor, excellent wharf that was nearing completion, and the first class quarantine station that was ready for operation any time that it could be put to use. Actually it would take practically the same amount of time for a ship to reach the Orient from Vancouver via Prince Rupert, as it would to go direct from the southern port. Underwriters, when shown facts and figures connected with the risks, in regard to shipping from Prince Rupert could not but admit that there was no valid excuse for charging higher rates than that made for the lower coast cities to the Orient.

Up to Business Men.

The captain concluded by strongly urging the business men of Prince Rupert to take the matter of Oriental shipping from here up promptly and seriously, and get it going if only in a small way at first. Part of the work necessary, was to arrange with the various producing industries for cargoes if the steamship companies show a willingness to send their ships here for part cargoes.

President E. F. Duby congratulated the club upon its being the first occasion today, since the club was started, that there was a full attendance of members.

An illustrated lecture entitled "A trip through the West Indies and Central America" will be delivered on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church Hall by the Rev. John Knox Wright, secretary of the Canadian Bible Society. Everybody welcome. The lecture will be well worth hearing.
